Historical and Archaeological questions, as well as questions of Biblical Theology, are included in the plan of the Commentary, but not Practical or Homiletical Exegesis. "There are two elements in Mr. Meredith's work which have assured his victory. One is his delight, and his power of communicating delight, in humanity and its thousand activities . . and the second unapproachable gift is his portrayal of women. . . The only English artist who has left the world a richer gallery of fair women than Mr. Meredith is Shakespeare himself."—London Times.

Novels and Stories by

Richard Harding Davis

First large edition exhausted before publication

THE KING'S JACKAL

With Illustrations and a Cover Design by Charles Dana Gibson. 12mo, $1.25

"In 'The King's Jackal' Mr. Davis shows more sustained increase of power, both as regards style and treatment, than could be traced in any of his previous books, 'Soldiers of Fortune' not excepted. The latter novel, published just a year ago, firmly established Mr. Davis in a foremost place among the contemporary writers of romantic fiction. The distribution and sale of 55,000 copies of the book in twelve months is a remarkable record in these days of strenuous competition in the field of romance. Equal success seems to await 'The King's Jackal.' Already, before the book has been placed on sale, the second impression is printing to meet advance orders. . . . Mr. Davis has handled the story with rare dexterity. Through the pages throbs a narrative impulse that heightens the striking effect of the dramatic situation. The characters are projected with a deftness that makes one forget that their 'cosmopolitan cleverness' is the creation of the author. Mr. Davis has never imagined anything more dexterously than the conclusion."

58th Thousand

Soldiers of Fortune

With Illustrations and a Cover Design by Charles Dana Gibson. 12mo, $1.50

"It is not necessary to commend this story. It has won its way already. But to those who have not yet read it, we can say, 'do so at once.' Its interest is unflagging, and its prevalent tone is one of healthful manliness."—The Critic.

"There is a subtle intellectual charm about 'Soldiers of Fortune' which is characteristic of the best American fiction of the day. Mr. Harding Davis always writes well, but he has never done anything better than this."

—London Speaker.

40th Thousand

Gallegher, and Other Stories

With Cover Design by A. B. Frost. 12mo, $1.00

"New York has a new meaning to his readers, as London has a new meaning to the reader of Dickens."—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

"Mr. Davis is a writer of unquestioned genius. His sketches of city life in the poorer districts have a force which makes them exceptionally vivid and inspiring."—Albany Express.

13th Thousand

Cinderella, and Other Stories

With Cover Design by A. B. Wenzell. 12mo, $1.00

"Mr. Davis's aptitude for work of this kind is too well known to need commendation. There is a freshness and brightness about this volume which is very attractive. There are five sketches in the book and each is so good in its way that it is not easy to say which is the best."

—Public Opinion.

These four volumes are all uniformly bound

SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE

RICHARD HARDING DAVIS'S WAR CORRESPONDENCE

MR. RICHARD HARDING DAVIS'S articles on the progress of the war, in Scribner's Magazine, will continue to the close of hostilities. They will give a continuous picture. After "The First Shot of the War" and "The First Bombardment," came "The Rocking-chair Period of the War" and "The Landing of Shafter's Army," and these are to be followed by a rapid succession of other papers. They will be accompanied by illustrations from photographs, and, in addition to the value of Mr. Davis's observation and vivid writing, will form a record nearly contemporaneous with the events they describe.

Mr. Davis has been fortunate in seeing all the important early events on this side of the world. He started with the fleet, was on the flag-ship at the first captures (of the "Buen Ventura," the "Pedro" and "Panama"), the bombardments of Matanzas and near Cabañas Harbor, was at the front with the famous charge of the Rough Riders, and witnessed all the events in the attack upon and capture of Santiago.

4. Books sent for introductory supply will be billed at list Introductory prices, and the proper allowance for handling and for old books received in exchange will be made at settlement.

SUGGESTIONS. — In ordering, parties will confer a favor upon us by complying with the following suggestions:—

1. Always be careful to give full and exact titles.
2. State whether books ordered are for Introduction or for Regular Trade.
3. If for Introduction, make a careful estimate of the number of books required, and be careful not to send an excessive order; a second order is always more satisfactory to all concerned than a return of books resulting from an excessive order.
4. In ordering for Introduction, be particular to state the school or schools in which the books are to be introduced, what book, if any, is to be displaced, whether it is expected that exchanges will be made, and the probable number of such exchanges.
5. If you are not personally known to us, and wish us to open an account with you, always mention the name of some reliable party to whom we may refer, if we desire information respecting your responsibility and standing.

TERMS. — Note carefully the following: —

1. Orders for single copies of any book should always be accompanied by cash; do not ask us to open an account for the price of a single book.
2. All accounts for merchandise ordered for Regular Trade should be paid on or before the 15th of the month following the one in which they were contracted; if not so paid, we reserve the right to draw at sight, without special notice, through our Bank, on the 15th of the month, for the amount of such accounts.
3. All Introductory Accounts must be settled monthly. If the time allowed for introduction has not expired, parties with whom we have open accounts for Introductory Supplies should send us on the first of the month a statement of the books on hand unsold, with remittance to cover all books sold.

REMITTANCES should be sent to us by Bank Draft, P. O. Money Order, Express Order, or Registered Letter.

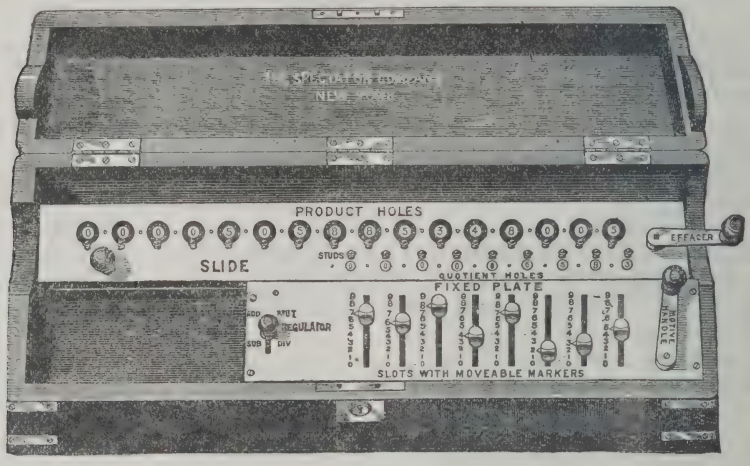
CALCULATING MACHINES.

TATE'S ARITHMOMETER.

This machine is generally regarded as being the most complete and practical one yet produced. It is thoroughly reliable, stands the hardest kind of work without derangement, and is so well made as to practically never require repairs. The Tate Arithmometer is in use by actuaries and mathematicians in all parts of the world, and is universally commended by them after long and severe tests. This instrument is made in two sizes, a cut of the 16 figure product machine being shown below.



Among the many testimonials received showing the efficiency of the Arithmometer, we produce one of the latest (1897), from Mr. Henry D. Smidt, under Colonial Secretary at Cape Town :

"I wish to state that the Arithmometer supplied this department in 1890 has proved to be wholly satisfactory. I venture to say that it has been in more constant use and has done more work than any instrument used for a like period. It has been in constant use for all statistical, actuarial and other Government purposes, and I have never known it to fail in a single instance to the slightest extent. It has remained in perfect adjustment and is still in as perfect condition as it was when first received here."

THE ODHNER (BRUNSVIGA) CALCULATING MACHINE.

The "Odhner" is very simple in construction, substantially made, compactly put together, and is absolutely accurate. The illustration herewith gives an excellent idea of its appearance. The "Odhner" is well known in Europe, many hundreds of them being used in Russia, Germany, France, Holland, England and elsewhere with the greatest satisfaction, as is shown by testimonials given the manufacturers. The "Odhner" will work any combinations of figures, however complicated, with the greatest facility and with perfect accuracy.

PRICES OF THE ODHNER.

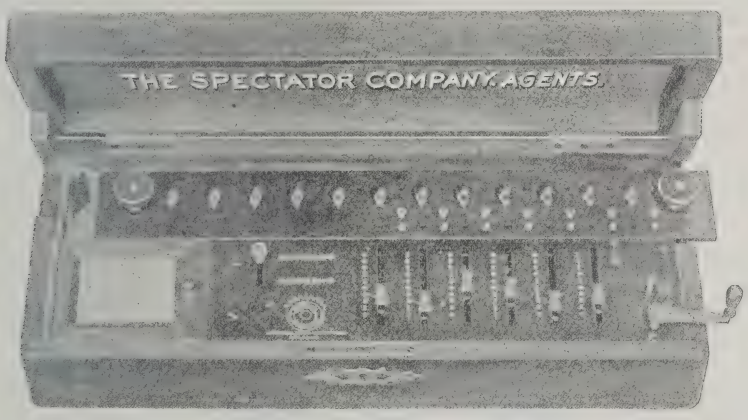
"B"—13 " " " - - - - - 130.00
(Size "A" is mostly used by insurance companies.)

THE GERMAN ARITHMOMETER.

Like the foregoing machines, by the German Arithmometer, which is very popular with many insurance companies, calculations such as addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, squaring, cubing, extracting of square roots, etc., can be performed with rapidity and unfailing accuracy, and without mental effort. It is set for any required calculation by the shifters in the grooves, and the calculation is performed by turning the handle. The lower row of figure holes records the number of turns of the handle, and the upper row gives the result. The machine will multiply two factors, each of which may have as many figures as there are grooves in the plate.



The machine is mechanically perfect and built in the most substantial manner, so that it will retain its efficiency and accuracy for a very long time. There are a great many of these machines in use in public and private offices and scientific laboratories in the United States and Europe, and they are in all cases giving great satisfaction.

PRICES OF THE GERMAN ARITHMOMETER.

Index of the Subjects represented in E. Steiger & Co.'s Catalogues and Lists of German and other Publications, which are usually kept on hand and for sale.

Reference to many hundreds of minor specialities that are represented on E. Steiger & Co.'s shelves, has been omitted in this Index; it mentions expressly only the more important subjects (in which those minor specialities are, of course, embraced).

Moreover, it should be understood that important new publications are, as soon as issued, added to the stock of E. Steiger & Co., from whom they may, therefore, be ordered although not advertised by them.

Of many German Periodicals stock is kept on hand; all others, in whatever country published, are imported to order, by various conveyances — at correspondingly different prices, which will be quoted upon inquiry.

Note. Steiger's Catalogues and Lists have, primarily for the purpose of being distributed singly, been issued—not in regular order—in the course of 3 years; for various reasons they have not been edited in uniform style, nor have all been numbered and paged. They can be had done up in a complete collection of about 500 pp. (price $0.25), and also, to answer the needs of other bookbuyers, in various small combinations. These Catalogues and Lists will be supplemented from time to time, or re-edited to correspond with the additions to, and changes in, the stock of E. Steiger & Co.

Abbreviations. L. = Language — M. = Manufacture of. The * in place of a number indicates that the publications on that subject are mentioned on a separate leaf.

E. STEIGER & CO., 25 Park Place, NEW YORK

A Knowledge of Foreign Languages is not only conducive to success in Mercantile Business and other pursuits, but also to a more correct and thorough understanding of one's mother-tongue.

An Extraordinary Success

as a practical textbook for

Learning German

has been achieved by

the Rudiments of

Steiger's Colloquial Method of Learning the German Language.

By Joseph Deghuée. Boards $0.35

This little book, expressly written and published for the public schools of New York City according to the carefully considered plan of the Superintendents and Teachers of German, has also proved very acceptable in many other schools as the easiest introduction to the regular study of German.

Its peculiar feature consists in teaching German pronunciation, reading, etc. by the use of Roman type. The necessity of commencing by learning the German characters, a task that is irksome to many children, is thus avoided. After the first division of this book has been mastered, the German letters are thoroughly taught.

The carefully selected vocabulary is purposely small, being confined to words most frequently occurring in the child's daily life.

For the large percentage of pupils who cannot pursue the study of German during more than one term, and especially for pupils of evening schools as well as for adults already earning their daily bread and desirous of learning to converse in German as speedily as possible, this little book will prove the best assistant.

In other words: The Rudiments teach in an easy manner as much of German for practical purposes as tens of thousands care or ever find time to learn from books. Those who intend to study German thoroughly and fully, may, after learning what the Rudiments teach, continue with whatever German grammar they prefer. They will then make much better and quicker progress than they could do without the preparation derived from mastering the Rudiments. Consequently the time spent upon the Rudiments is well applied in all cases.

A few words on

The Rudiments of
Steiger's Colloquial Method of Learning the German Language.

By Joseph Deghuée. Boards $0.35

The object of this little book is to smooth the path of very young students of German by lessening the difficulties to be dealt with at the outset. The principal means used for this purpose are:

1) The exercises in the first division of the book are printed in English characters. Thus the student may become acquainted with German pronunciation without being at the same time burdened with the task of learning a new alphabet. Being familiar with the pronunciation, when meeting German type in the second division of the book, he will easily recognize in the German letters their English equivalents.

2) The exercises in pronunciation, spelling, and reading, which furnish also material for translation and conversation, are restricted to a vocabulary consisting of a very small number of the most usual German words expected to be mastered by the student. Many difficulties, e. g. the pronunciation of C, Ch, X, Y, ti, etc., in words of foreign origin, are hereby excluded.

3) There are only a few grammatical inflections in the book. Those of the first division are the terminations of articles and possessive adjectives in the nominative case, the formation of the comparative of adjectives, and the conjugation of the present tense of sein and haben. The second division contains the plural of nouns, the object in the accusative case, the present tense of verbs, and the imperfect of sein and haben.

4) Each division of this book has a small selection of easy pieces for reading and declamation with interlinear translations of such words or grammatical inflections as are not supposed to be known to the student.

There are in each division numerous suggestions for conversational exercises which it is left to the teacher to extend and modify.

In its general arrangement and the selection of its vocabulary the book follows a plan recently adopted for the public schools of the city of New York.

Steiger's Rudiments will also exactly suit the purpose of thousands of persons who after leaving school find that some knowledge of German would be most useful to them in business and otherwise, but who cannot spare the time to take a full course of German grammar.

With the assistance of some one to teach the correct pronunciation, Steiger's Rudiments are for such persons a most practical means of learning, within a comparatively short time and without great effort, as much of German as will enable them to converse on simple everyday topics and business matters.

Thus having laid a firm foundation, they will find it very easy to use a German dictionary or to study a regular grammar of German, if this should appear desirable. For such continued study Steiger's Colloquial German Method is especially commended.

Sample-pages will be mailed free, on application.

STEIGER'S COLLOQUIAL METHOD

OF LEARNING THE GERMAN LANGUAGE.

BY

JOSEPH DEGHUÉE.

The Colloquial Method followed in this book attempts so to combine the "natural" method with the "grammatical" as to include the best features of both.

While the student is trained, from the outset, to comprehend the foreign idiom when spoken, and to express his own thoughts in the foreign language, the conversation is under the constant guidance of grammar, question and answer, address and reply being always kept within the limits of the grammatical knowledge of the student.

The grammatical instruction, distributed over 124 lessons, passes in very easy stages through the whole range of German etymology and comprises the essential rules of German syntax.

Each lesson gives 1) a very simple grammatical rule or explanation, which is illustrated by sentences for oral and written translation and questions that must be answered in German; 2) a conversation, generally in the nature of an object lesson, containing only such terminations and grammatical forms as are, at that stage, known to the student, and gradually introducing the most common words of daily intercourse.

These conversations are not ready-made dialogues designed to be read, translated, and memorized, but real discourses, in which the student has to bear an active and living part. Thus he acquires a large vocabulary and considerable readiness and fluency in the use of the language: without tedious effort, he learns to speak German.

Of all occupations for children, Building is one of the most useful. It trains eyes and hands, develops the sense of the beautiful and the intellectual faculties, and strengthens the child's judgment.

With a view to these advantages for the child, the above Building-plays are specially recommended. The unit of all building is the cube, from which all other forms are developed, according to the system of Frœbel.

The drawings which accompany these plays, are numerous and so carefully presented, that they can be followed without any difficulty even by young children. On the other hand they serve as the basis of numberless variations, with which the attentive and inventive child will busy himself.

We beg to call attention to the following list of our wall charts for object teaching.

For class use they will be found far superior to charts of smaller dimensions, as their size (about 2×3 feet) permits even pupils sitting at a distance to distinguish the details without leaving their seats.

The original drawings have been executed by the most competent artists, with scientific accuracy as well as with due regard for pedagogic principles, the lithographic reproductions leave nothing to be desired and the charts have consequently met with just appreciation in the shape of favorable mention in leading educational journals and numerous prizes at expositions.

The illustrations accompanying this list necessarily convey but an imperfect idea of the excellence of the charts, as the impossibility of showing the coloring, as well as the necessity of reducing the size, which circumstances cause many of the details to become indistinct, are drawbacks to an adequate representation.

The charts recommend themselves and hardly could a teacher be found who having once seen them would fail to take immediate steps toward procuring these most useful aids to instruction.

The New York School Board has acknowledged their merits by thus far adopting some sixty of them for use in the public schools. For the sake of convenience we have designated these with an asterisk (*) in the following list.

The following two series, LEUTEMANN'S Animal Kingdom and LEUTEMANN'S Zoölogical Wall Charts, are, from the teacher's as well as from the naturalist's and the artist's standpoint, unsurpassed in excellence. The animal is always represented in its most characteristic pose and, wherever the size of the chart will permit, it is of full life-size. The background furnishes numberless subjects for discussion. It shows the natural abode of the animal, its mode of life, etc. In the chart of the Goose, for instance, we find part of a village represented, with the bird at home both on dry land and in the water, seeking its food in the brook as well as taking it from a child's hand. Other charts again, such as the Horse, the Dromedary and the Reindeer, show how these animals are made to serve man. Beasts are represented in their natural habitation, the Lion and Lioness in the desert, the Tiger in the jungle, always in a manner most true to nature.

The pictures are mounted on heavy, tough paper and are edged with linen, while the eyelets for hanging the charts are fastened in such a way as to bear the strain best, thus enabling them to stand the wear and tear of many years' service in school before becoming unfit for use.

They are admirably adapted to increase the pupil's interest in geography lessons, by bringing before him faultless representations of the inhabitants of the countries which are the subject of his study.

Zoötomical Wall Charts.

These charts are especially intended as aids in teaching comparative anatomy and kindred subjects, they will prove of considerable assistance to any one comparing the structure of the different classes of animals by showing the representative forms of each in close proximity.

Thus Plate II, for example, affords a ready comparison of the various structures of skulls, teeth, etc. by giving large representations of the skulls of the lion, the mole, the sheep, the beaver and the ant-bear. In like manner this chart also shows the skeleton of the human hand, of the fore foot of the dog, of that of the tapir, the beef and the horse and of the fin of the dolphin.

Most of these charts are lithographed in gray and black, but in some instances, where the nature of the subject made it desirable, as in charts VIII—XI, several colors have been used.

In the following list the proportionate size of the picture on the chart to the subject in nature is indicated thus: four times natural size = 4–1, natural size = 1–1, one quarter natural size = 1–4.

12 lithographed plates, 26x34", mounted on heavy paper, with linen edges and eyelets for hanging. $1.10 per chart (Postage 6c.)

Botanical Wall Charts.

On the 54 charts of this series 64 characteristic and typical plants belonging to 40 orders, are shown in natural size wherever this is possible; in the case of trees and shrubs it was necessary to confine the representation to that of a twig, with flowers, fruits, etc.

The details of each plant, sections of the various organs, etc. are represented highly magnified, so that all peculiarities of structure can be readily distinguished from a distance. The drawings and their coloring, it is needless to say, have been produced as true to nature as was possible. On the back of each chart the common English, as well as the botanical name will be found, together with a full designation of the various parts.

The charts are edged with linen and are supplied with eyes for hanging. For the sake of greater durability we also furnish them mounted on heavy paper.

Steiger's Elementary Sewing Designs.

Prospectus.

Sewing being now generally recognized as an important factor in manual training and introduced into the public schools of most of our large cities, the want of efficient aids for primary classes has been keenly felt.

The mothers in our country, unlike those in Europe, rarely take the time and trouble to show their little ones how to use their hands, and only a small number of Kindergartens, which in a measure supply this want and teach the use of the needle, have thus far been established here. But even where they do exist, two years intervene between them and that grade in our public schools in which sewing is introduced. We, therefore, find a large proportion of children unable to control the muscles of their fingers, and most of them have such great difficulty in handling the needle, that they are easily discouraged and consider it very tedious to acquire the accuracy necessary as a foundation for the work in higher grades.

"Mechanical repetition invariably excites disgust for any work," says Mr. SLUYS, the Belgian educator; yet the repetition of stitches is necessary in order to acquire dexterity and accuracy. Therefore we must make sewing attractive, and how could we do this better than by carrying out the ideas of FRŒBEL and adapting them to the work in hand.

The teaching of sewing in the public schools should be educational rather than industrial, yet, in cultivating the taste, it is an excellent preparation for future industrial work.

Commissioner W. T. HARRIS, in his address on "Manual Training" to the National Educational Association, says: "If the pupil pursues this study (manual training) by the analysis of the historical forms of ornament, and acquires familiarity with graceful outlines and a genuine taste for the creation of tasteful and beautiful forms, he has done more towards satisfying the economic problem of industry than he could do by much mechanical skill."

It is with this principle in view that one of the series of these Sewing Designs (IV) is composed entirely of historic borders, the following styles being represented: Egyptian, Old Italian, Norman, Greek and Chinese.

The designs here presented will be found a great help in making the work attractive. They have been used for many years in large classes of the public schools of New York City with very satisfactory results.

As unbleached muslin is less injurious to the eyes and offers less resistance to the needle than bleached muslin, it has been chosen for the preparation of our "Elementary Sewing Designs."

Each sheet measures about one square yard. Sheet I contains repetitions of the pattern shown in the figure on page 2 and furnishes material for 40 pupils. Sheet II provides for 25 pupils, each design comprising a circle, a triangle, a square and an ellipse as shown in the figure on page 3. Series III is composed of 25 different geometric designs, each measuring 7×7". Series

IV and V each consist of 20 different designs of borders, those of Series IV being exclusively historic, whereas those of Series V are conventional, curved lines having special prominence.

Series III, IV and V are also to be had on fine India linen and, when used thus in supplementary work in buttonhole stitching and Kensington outline work, serve as a special incentive to the ambition of the pupils.

The designs are printed in a clear, unbroken line in order to train the child to use her own judgment in regulating the size and spacing of the stitches and because minute stitches mechanically marked strain the eyes.

We use these geometric designs, because, in addition to their educational value, their bold outlines are less injurious to the eyesight than the short lines and curves of pictorial drawings.

For private instruction or as an "occupation" for children at home, when one design of a series is sufficient, we have prepared envelopes containing the materials necessary to produce a "sampler" such as described on page 4, i. e. 5 designs, one of each series, 4 pieces of blank muslin, each 3×7", to be used in making seams, about 20 yards of colored cotton (red, orange, yellow, green, blue and violet) and 2 needles of different sizes.

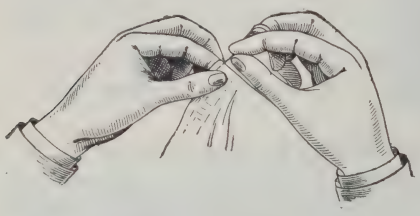

Fig. 2 (Position of hands in sewing.)

A pamphlet giving the necessary instructions regarding the holding of the needle, the various stitches, etc., etc. is also to be had. A few of the illustrations contained in the same are reproduced in this prospectus.

Directions.

I. Basting.

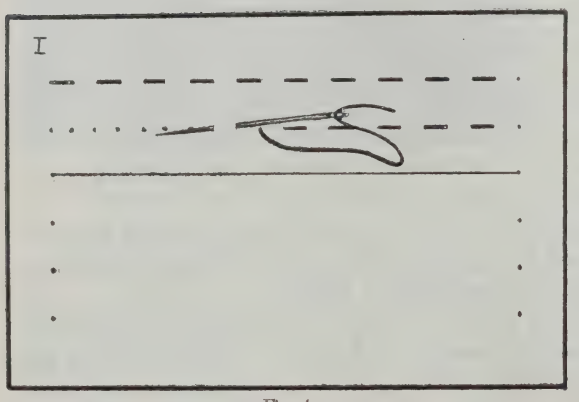

Fig. 4

In teaching basting the stitch should be explained with a blackboard diagram, and particular attention should be paid to the evenness of the stitches. Then the child should sew the first line on her piece as indicated by the lines and spaces. The dotted line should be sewed in the same way. The next line is to be sewed evenly without help in spacing and the last three without lines.

II. Running. Simple Geometric Figures.

The running-stitch like the basting-stitch should be introduced by blackboard work. At first large stitches may be permitted, but there should be a gradual reduction in size, and the last figure on the square should be executed as well as can be expected from the age and general ability of the child. It has been found encouraging to the children to use cottons of various colors as a reward for improvement.

III. Geometric Designs.

These designs are intended to teach greater accuracy and dexterity in handling the needle without wearying the little sewer. The simpler ones should be given to the slower children and the more elaborate ones to those who are more advanced. It is advisable to let the children use their own taste in the selection of colors and to call their attention to the forms of which the designs are composed. After this preparation there will be little difficulty in taking up the running seam and overcasting.

IV. Historic Borders for Stitching.

These borders, being composed entirely of straight lines, are admirably adapted to teaching the backstitch. Nos. 1 to 7 are Egyptian; 8 is Old Italian; 9, Norman; 10 to 18, Greek; 19 and 20 are Chinese.

Brief historic sketches of the peoples and times that produced these designs will prove both interesting and instructive.

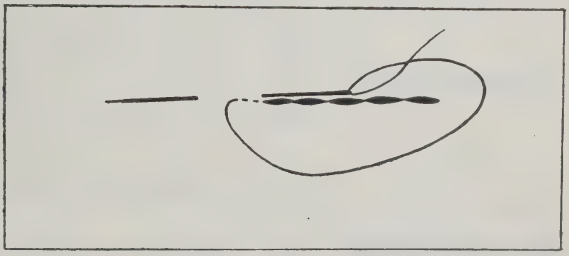

Fig. 8 (Right side).

Part of Fig. 9 (Wrong side).

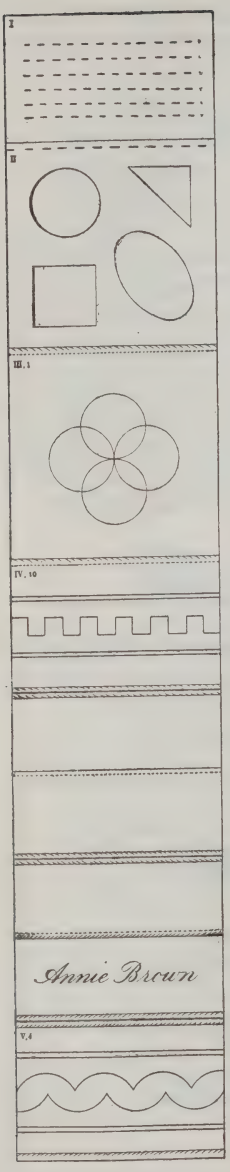
V. Curved Line Borders.

These borders can be used for supplementary work in running, backstitching or outlining; they are especially adapted to the latter.

Schools with Kindergartens will find these designs a link between the Kindergarten and primary work.



Suggestions.

The work of each child may be effectively and systematically arranged in a "sampler," thus:—

Baste I and II together.

Unite III to II by means of a running seam and IV to III by means of a backstitched seam.

Make a French fell or bag-seam seven inches long, using similar unbleached muslin. Add another strip to this by means of an overhanding seam with the rough edges turned down and overcast and still another strip by means of a fell.

Hem both these pieces, top and bottom, and overhand them together. Add in the same manner the outlined border V and outline the name of the child on one of the plain strips.

In mission, industrial or private schools, where the children are allowed to take their work home, the designs may be utilized in various ways.

The squares neatly fringed may serve as pin cushion covers, or as mats or table-covers in dolls' houses.

The squares of a class will make a pretty quilt by simply sewing them together or by alternating them with strips or squares of plain material.

Two borders sewed together with French seams and faced with a strip of colored material, through which a string may be drawn, produce an attractive button-bag.

A pretty memorandum-book or laundry-list may be made by mounting two borders on cardboard, lining them, overhanding the edges neatly and uniting them at the backs by means of a half-inch ribbon to which may be fastened paper and pencil; by furnishing this cover with envelopes neatly labeled a convenient receptacle for recipes or scraps may be produced.

Four borders and one square mounted on cardboard, lined, the edges overhanded and properly joined to a square of the same size covered with lining, will make a pretty box for needlework or handkerchiefs.

Dieses Kochbuch enthält mehr als 750 Recepte, und zwar ausschließlich für solche Speisen, welche unter Berücksichtigung der amerikanischen Nahrungsmittel in einem kleinen Haushalte bei mäßigen Kosten eine schmackhafte und gesunde Nahrung liefern.

Es entspricht einem Bedürfnisse, da trotz der Unzahl der Kochbücher, welche existiren, es in Amerika doch nur sehr wenige gibt, die für Anfängerinnen im Haushalte wirklich praktisch sind. Soweit es thunlich war, sind die in diesem Kochbuche angegebenen Speisen fast alle für nur 2 Personen berechnet, obwohl sie allenfalls auch für eine dritte Person reichen würden. Es ist immer leichter, das Quantum um das Zwei- oder Dreifache zu vermehren, als umgekehrt. Außer den englischen Namen der einzelnen Gerichte sind auch die englischen Bezeichnungen der verschiedenen Fleisch- und Fischarten nebst Preisangaben mitgetheilt, sodaß Neulinge sich schnell darüber unterrichten können.

The Kneipp System of Water Cure

is the result of 40 years' successful practice by the venerable German priest-physician Sebastian Kneipp (died, at the age of 76 years, on June 17, 1897) who in the course of this time has greatly improved upon all other systems of water cure. Father Kneipp's system is deservedly appreciated and employed all over the civilized world, and his books (the sales of which in the original German aggregate nearly a million copies) have been translated into English, French, Spanish, Italian, Bohemian and Polish, translations into other languages being in preparation.

Owing to his position the Rev. Father Kneipp has had to desist from writing a book on the Diseases of Women and their cure by his system. This task has now been undertaken and successfully carried out by Mrs. Louise Marie Schweizer, a lady of thorough medical education and in every way competent, who for several years was associated with the Rev. Kneipp as his Private Secretary, Manager of his Statistical Bureau, etc.

We have just published this valuable and timely book which is certain to have a very extensive circulation, in view of the fact that women in particular are subject to many diseases and ailments which the Kneipp System is especially adapted to cure and also to forestal. Mrs. Schweizer's book teaches how in most cases prevention and cure may be effected by self-treatment at home.

The title of this book is:

Das Kneipp'sche System

Bladys of the Stewponey.

This is a romance of the close of the last century. The scene is laid partly near the famous Stewponey Inn, near Stourton Castle, at the time when the country on the road to Chester was infested with highwaymen, and partly at Shrewsbury.

The story contains the last instance of the burning of a woman for "petty treason," i.e., the murder of her husband, which took place at Shrewsbury in 1790. The very interesting Red Sandstone country, with its inhabited caves, the refuge of the highwaymen and their confederates, is described. 12mo, cloth, ornamental, ... $1.25

Crockett, S. R. Two of the greatest books for young people ever written.

Sweetheart Travellers.

A child's book for children, for women, and for men, by the author of "The Sticket Minister," "The Raiders," "The Lilac Sunbonnet," etc.

Unlike most books of this character, it appeals to adults as well as to children.

With numerous and beautiful illustrations by Gordon Browne and W. H. Groome.

"Had any one ever been inclined to disbelieve in Mr. Crockett's genius he must have recanted and repented in sackcloth after enjoying 'Sweetheart Travellers.' It is the rarest of all rarities and veritably 'A Child's Book for Children,' as well as for women and men. It is seldom, indeed, that the reviewer has the opportunity of bestowing unstinted praise with the feeling that the laudation is, nevertheless, inadequate. 'Sweetheart Travellers' is instinct with drollery; it continually strikes the softest notes of tender pathos, like some sweet old-fashioned nursery melody, and it must make the most hardened bachelor feel something of the pleasures he has missed in living mateless and childless."—London Times.

The Surprising Adventures of

With those of General Napoleon Smith. An improving history for Old Boys, Young Boys, Good Boys, Bad Boys, Big Boys, Little Boys, Cow Boys, and Tom Boys.

Children were posed in the costumes of the characters in the book, and then the background of the scene was drawn about the photographs. The result is a very pretty and entirely original effect.

Foster, R. F. Books of Games by the greatest living authority.

Complete Hoyle.

Mr. Foster is probably the most thorough and scientific student of games of the present time. He is accurate and painstaking to the last degree, and his books have a value for reference not equalled by any other similar works.

This new work is the most important book on games ever issued. Mr. Foster was at work on it continuously for over two years, and it is a complete encyclopedia of all the indoor games played at the present day, with suggestions for good play, a full Code of Laws, illustrative hands, and a brief statement of the doctrine of chances as applied to games.

The chief points in which this work differs from other so-called Hoyles are:

It is up to date; the latest and best variations in the methods of play being given in every instance and all the new games being incorporated, many of them being given for the first time.

The book is entirely original, not a line of description being borrowed from any other work on games.

It is uniform in the treatment of its subject, and the description of every game follows exactly the same course, beginning at the beginning with the apparatus and the players, and then following the natural course of events until the settling up at the end. All the irregularities are mentioned, and the remedies or penalties for them are given.

The work is arranged on the principle of a dictionary or encyclopedia, and all games are grouped in families, so that all the variations from the principal one may be found at once.

The dictionary of technical terms is as complete as it is possible to make it, the equivalents for many French and German terms being given.

This book is one that no club or lover of games can afford to be without. In it are given the rules for over 250 games.

Foster's Whist Tactics.

In this work the author has followed the same principles which made his manual so successful, first giving the examples with the cards, and then showing the principles underlying their management. The general management of the hand is gone into, and rules are given for the best course when the plain suits and the trumps are in certain proportions.

The examples which the author uses throughout the work consist of 112 hands of Duplicate Whist, played by correspondence between 16 of the finest players in America. For every card played in this match, each of the players had a week to think over the situation, and the result has been 112 examples of the very best and most carefully studied whist ever played.

Gay, Elizabeth W. Whist Study Suits. Compiled for students and teachers.

A most simple, unique, and effective method of teaching and learning the game.

Designed to help beginners in the study of Whist, and consisting of the simple conventional plays, as given by the best authorities on leads and second and third hand plays.

Most books on Whist contain so much information that the beginner is apt to become confused. This book aims to ground students of the game thoroughly in its fundamental principles, and the fact that the rules are accompanied by colored fac-similes of cards representing the suits is a great aid in accomplishing this.

These large "pictures" of the various hands from which leads are usually made are a novel feature in the instruction of Whist, and are most valuable for both students and teachers of the game.

Gissing, George.

The Whirlpool.

A strong novel by the author of "In the Year of the Jubilee," "Eve's Ransom," etc. Mr. Gissing's late work has attracted a great deal of attention in England by its strength and truth. Harold Frederic, in a recent issue of the New York Times, dwelt upon this fact at length, and predicted still greater success for him in the future. "The Whirlpool" is a story of modern English life, and is of absorbing interest.

Hope, Anthony. Three novels by the greatest of all living romantic writers, the author of "The Prisoner of Zenda."

Simon Dale.

The story is laid in the time of Charles II. and has chiefly to do with the English and French courts. These furnish materials for a tale of love, intrigue, and adventure that could not be surpassed, and the author has availed himself of his opportunities in a remarkable manner. The work lies in a slightly different field from that which he has previously cultivated, although the same brilliant and original touch which is so strongly shown throughout "Phroso" and "The Prisoner of Zenda" is noticeable in this new story.

Nell Gwyn, Charles II. of England, and Louis XIV. of France figure prominently in this romance.

Phroso.

Kennedy, Walker. Javan-Ben-Seïr. Mr. Kennedy, who is the editor of the Memphis Appeal-Avalanche, has achieved a wide reputation in recent years by stories dealing with the early Hebrews, which appeared in The Independent and other religious papers. "Javan-Ben-Seïr" is the first long story that he has written and it is laid in the same field in which he has been so successful. It is a story full of stirring adventure, and contains also a great deal of interesting information about the habits of the early Hebrews. The most interesting incident in the story is Javan's race for life to the City of Refuge. A man was killed in a quarrel and Javan was accused of the death. The dead man's brothers had the right under the law to kill Javan if found outside the City of Refuge, and their hot pursuit of him makes a strange and unique denouement.

"It is well written; it has action; it is interesting, and it has plenty of local color."—New York World.

Lewis, Alfred Henry. Wolfville. Mr. Lewis is one of the most distinguished newspaper correspondents of the day. During his early life he spent many years in the West, and subsequently embodied his experiences in a series of Western sketches, which are collected in this book.

A Western editor recently wrote to Mr. Lewis' publishers in regard to "Wolfville" as follows :

"Nothing since Bret Harte has appeared in the literary world of equal force and truth to Mr. Lewis' work. I appreciate its fidelity as an old cattleman, and as a dabbler in literary work, its art; and in any case, it is inimitable."

Frederick Remington, who is undoubtedly the best-equipped artist in the world for such a work, has contributed 18 illustrations to the work, most of them full-page.

All the facts pertaining to natural history or geography in the book are accurate, and it is an exceedingly attractive work for young people. Children of Colonial Days.

With 12 fac-similes of water-color sketches by Mr. Moran. Beautiful pictures of colonial life. The principal characters in these are children, but there are also adults depicted, and all in the picturesque costumes of that period. Parker. Rev. Dr. Joseph. Might Have Been. A most interesting volume of comments by the popular preacher of the London Tabernacle, on people, things, and life.

Dr. Parker has invented what he calls the "Dreamograph,"—that is, he writes about things, not as they are, but as they might have been. But running through his fancies, of course, are many interesting facts and bits of philosophy.

Among the notable people who figure in this book are Henry Ward Beecher, John Bright, Phillips Brooks, John B. Gough, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Mark Twain, and Charles H. Spurgeon.

Peary, Robert E., U. S. N. Northward, Over the Great Ice.

The most important book of the year. The book includes descriptions of the Arctic Oasis and the Arctic Highlanders, the latter being the most northerly beings in their habitat. The discovery and successful transportation here of the greatest known meteorite, weighing ninety tons, is another feature of great interest.

"Northward" is in two volumes of about 600 pages each, and contains over 800 half-tone engravings, made from Peary's wonderful photographs, together with valuable maps, diagrams, etc.

Prentiss, Henry Mellen. The Great Polar Current. Polar papers. This work has been described by a great Arctic explorer as an "exceedingly interesting and valuable discussion of the leading features of arctic and antarctic exploration during the last quarter of a century."

The only work of the kind published in recent years.

Though not a formal treatise, and though written so as to interest the ordinary reader, as well as the expert, it has received high commendation from the leading explorers of the day.

The author gives a clear idea of the present glacial epoch in the frigid zones. His prophetic forecasts of the results of past expeditions should lend weight to his opinions in regard to future exploration.

With Peary, Wellman, Sverdrup, and others striving to reach the Pole, this clear and intelligible presentation of the general subject is timely and helpful.

Leading chapters of the work are devoted to the Peary and Nansen explorations.

Vincent, George R. Eight Songs of Horace. A remarkable novelty which has received the most careful attention in every detail. It is an attempt to reproduce with all possible exactness a Roman Book of the classic period.

This fac-simile of an old Latin MS. is in the shape of a scroll of heavy parchment paper, wound about a wooden cylinder with a white enameled knob at each end and tied with a leather thong. The first eight pages are lithographed, and consist of a title page in Latin, together with one of the rude, colored portraits of Horace, such as adorned the more pretentious volumes of the Roman bookseller, and followed by eight characteristic songs of the genial society poet of the time of Augustus. These are printed side by side in the Latin, in an alphabet gleaned from old coins, inscriptions, and MSS., an artist having made a careful drawing for each page.

"A very unique and perfectly executed bit of bibliographic work."—The Chautauquan.

Willard, Eleanor Withey. Children's Singing Games.

A most unique and valuable little work. Owing to the kindergarten, with its many pretty songs and games, there has been a revival of singing games, and the attempt to rescue these ancient plays from the realm of mere folk-lore, so that they should take once more a part in child-life, is opportune. Games little known in this country are given as well as those familiar to all. The tunes are all simple and well suited to children. To the old well-known songs are given the old well-known tunes. With numerous illustrations by the author.

A beautiful and artistic gift book, and especially timely. The text consists of some of the most famous sea songs in the English language, such as "The Lass that Loved a Sailor," "Three Fishers," etc., with explanatory notes by James Barnes, and several original songs. THE GODS GIVE MY DONKEY WINGS. Cloth. 18mo. $1.00

Ade, George.

ARTIE: A STORY OF THE STREETS AND OF THE TOWN. With many pictures by John T. McCutcheon, 16mo. $1.25. Fifteenth thousand.

Same, in Stone's Monthly Library. Paper. 50 cents.

Mr. Ade shows all the qualities of a successful novelist.—Chicago Tribune.

Artie is a character, and George Ade has limned him deftly as well as amusingly. Under his rollicking abandon and recklessness we are made to feel the real sense and sensitiveness, and the worldly wisdom of a youth whose only language is that of a street-gamin. As a study of the peculiar type chosen, it is both typical and inimitable.—Detroit Free Press.

PINK MARSH: A STORY OF THE STREETS AND OF THE TOWN. With forty full-page pictures by John T. McCutcheon. 16 mo. Uniform with Artie. $1.25. Eighth thousand.

Same, in Stone's Monthly Library. Paper. 50 cents.

There is, underlying these character sketches, a refinement of feeling that wins and retains one's admiration.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Here is a perfect triumph of characterization . . . Pink must become a household word.—Kansas City Star.

It is some time since we have met with a more amusing character than is "Pink Marsh," or to give him his full title, William Pinckney Marsh of Chicago. . . . "Pink" is not a conventional "coon" of the comic paper and the variety hall, but a genuine flesh and blood type, presented with a good deal of literary and artistic skill.—New York Sun.

THE COLLEGE WIDOW: A STORY OF A COLLEGE TOWN. Uniform binding with "Artie" and "Pink Marsh." 16 mo. $1.25.

Barnet, Edith A.

A CHAMPION IN THE SEVENTIES. Cloth. 12mo. $1.50.

It is the story of "A Champion in the Seventies" in England—one Tabitha Vassie, whose asperations were not understood or sympathized with by her father and mother and nine sisters and brothers. In fact, her death is directly traceable, according to her biographer, to their cruel, not wilful, but ignorantly cruel, treatment. There is some excellent character drawing and some good hard common sense in the book.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Barry, John D.

MADEMOISELLE BLANCHE. 12 mo. $1.50.

Mr. Barry will be remembered as the author of "A Daughter of Thespis," which appeared in the New York Tribune, and was highly praised by William Dean Howells.

Benham, Charles.

THE FOURTH NAPOLEON. A romance. 12mo. $1.50.

An accurate account of the history of the Fourth Napoleon, the coup d'etat which places him on the throne of France, the war with Germany, and his love intrigues as emperor. A vivid picture of contemporary politics in Paris.

"The Fourth Napoleon" is one of the cleverest and most entertaining books that I have read for a good while. It is a long story, but there is hardly a page in it that one can afford to skip. The author writes well, wasting no words over unnecessary and tiresome details. He also never loses hold of the thread of his story, and thus, unlike too many other authors, he is never guilty of needless digressions. Witty, too, he is, and his satirical touches here and there add greatly to one's enjoyment of his work.—New York Herald.

Bickford, L. H., and Richard Stillman Powell.

PHYLLIS IN BOHEMIA. A fanciful story. Illustrated with many pictures in color by Orson Lowell, and a cover design by Frank Hazenplug. 16mo. $1.25. Second Impression.

The book is delicious light comedy.—Public Opinion.

One of the daintiest and most charming of stories.—Brooklyn Eagle.

If it is not the freshest and daintiest and altogether the most fascinating of the lighter books of the fall, then my judgment is sadly at fault.—Buffalo Courier Record.

Always clever and frequently brilliant.—Cleveland World.

A mixture of Barrie's "Story of Arcadia" and Le Gallienne's "Quest of the Golden Girl."—Boston Post.

The story of her experience is very gayly and very merrily set forth.—Detroit Free Press.

Blossom, Henry M., Jr.

CHECKERS: A HARD-LUCK STORY. By the author of "The Documents in Evidence." 16mo. $1.25.

SAME, in Stone's Monthly Library. Paper. 50 cents.

Eighteenth thousand.

Abounds in the most racy and picturesque slang.—New York Recorder.

"Checkers" is an interesting and entertaining chap, a distinct type, with a separate tongue and a way of saying things that is oddly humorous.—Chicago Record.

If I had to ride from New York to Chicago on a slow train, I should like a half dozen books as gladsome as "Checkers," and I could laugh at the trip.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Bloundelle-Burton, John.

ACROSS THE SALT SEAS. A romance of war and adventure. Cloth. 12mo. $1.50.

The story is one of the best novels of adventure of the year.—New York Bookseller and Stationer.

Bullock, Shan F.

RING O' RUSHES. With a cover designed by A. P. Rogers. 16mo. $1.25.

These Irish tales are of great interest, especially now, when the literature of the Celts and Gaels is creating such a marked sensation.

Canton, William.

THE INVISIBLE PLAYMATE. A story of the Unseen. New Edition. 16mo. Boards. $1.00.

W. V.: HER BOOK. Illustrated. 16mo. Boards. $1.25.

Since the publication of Mr. Canton's "Invisible Playmate" his audience can be looked upon as no uncertain quantity, and in "W. V.: Her Book," will be found more of the same charming and subtle appreciation of child-life.

Chap-Book Stories. First Series.

A VOLUME OF REPRINTS FROM THE CHAP-BOOK. Contributions by Octave Thanet, Grace Ellery Channing, Maria Louise Pool, and others. 16mo. $1.25. Second impression.

The authors of this volume are all American. Besides the well-known names, there are some which were seen in The Chap-Book for the first time. The volume is bound in an entirely new and startling fashion.

Chap-Book Stories. Second Series.

Cloth. 16mo. $1.25.

This is the second collection of the best short stories from The Chap-Book. Many well-known names are included in the table of contents, and the volume will undoubtedly meet with the success which was quite accorded to the first volume of the series which appeared two years ago.

Charrington, Charles.

Lady Bramber's Ghost. 16mo. $1.25.

A Sturdy Beggar. 16mo. $1.25.

Strong imaginative fiction by a new man, which has been magnificently received in London.

Chatfield-Taylor, H. C.

The Vice of Fools: A Novel of Society Life in Washington. By the author of "The Land of the Castanet," "Two Women and a Fool," "An American Peeress," etc. With ten full-page pictures by Raymond M. Crosby. 16mo. $1.50.

Same, in Stone's Monthly Library. Paper. 50 cents.

Two Women and a Fool. With frontispiece by C. D. Gibson. 18mo. 75 cents. Ninth thousand.

Same, in paper binding, 25 cents.

Cornford, L. Cope.

Captain Jacobus. A strong romantic novel by a new man. 16mo. $1.25. Illustrated.

Davis, Charles Belmont.

The Borderland of Society. Illustrated by Cecil Clark. Cloth. 16mo. $1.25.

A collection of Mr. Davis' best stories which have appeared in the magazines.

D'Annunzio, Gabriele.

Episcopo and Company. Translated by Myrta Leonora Jones. 16mo. $1.25. Third impression.

Gabriele d'Annunzio is the best known and most gifted of modern Italian novelists. His work is making a great sensation at present in all literary circles. The translation now offered gave the first opportunity English-speaking readers had to know him in their own language.

Davidson, John.

Miss Armstrong's and Other Circumstances. Printed at the University Press, Cambridge. 16mo. Cloth. $1.25.

Dawe, Carlton.

A Bride of Japan. Cloth. 12mo. $1.50.

A very remarkable novel by Carlton Dawe, the scene of which is laid in Japan. An Englishman having business there, falls in love with a Japanese girl who is not a geisha. Against the advice of all of his friends he marries her and the story concerns their life afterward. It is admirably strong and moving and nothing could be more fascinating than the picturesque background. The story is likely to be widely popular.

DeKoven, Mrs. Reginald.

Same in paper binding, 25 cents.

We have been favored recently with "society novels" by Mr. Crawford and Mr. C. D. Warner, who, of course, know "society" tolerably well, and also know how to write, and are gifted with good strong imaginations, and Mr. Howells we have always with us. But these men have literary minds, if we may so express it, and they write of "society" as they write about the common herd, or brigandage in Greece, or sunset in Venice, as a subject they have noted and studied, that has perhaps inspired them to effort, but not as one upon which their very being depends.

Wherefore, there is a much warmer welcome from folks gifted with the proper kind of understanding.

This book of Mrs. Reginald DeKoven is a treasure. She speaks "open sesame" for us.—New York Times.

Embree, Charles Fleming.

FOR THE LOVE OF TONITA, AND OTHER TALES OF THE MESAS. With a cover designed by Fernand Lungren. 16mo. $1.25.

Characteristic and breezy stories of the Southwest, by a new author. Full of romantic interest and with an unusually humorous turn. The book coming from a new writer, is likely to be a real surprise. The cover is an entirely new experiment in bookbinding.

Fitch, Clyde.

THE SMART SET. 18mo. $1.00.
Second impression.

A book of correspondence and conversation in a light and attractive style. It is extremely amusing.

It is excessively up to date, and quite authentic. You may learn from it how the "swagger set," do write and talk, what slangy wit and frivolity are, and you may also learn how to attain just that little touch of audacious vulgarity which is nowadays the "cachet" of fashion. If Mr. Fitch is not shooting at a very high mark, he is at least aiming at one which is more frequently missed than almost any other. Nothing is commoner and more depressing than the stories of fashionable life by people who know nothing about it, and when one does know, rich rewards of fame usually await him or her, as Mrs. Burton Harrison's vogue may attest. It is undeniably smart writing and pretty genuine wit.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Frederic, Harold.

THE DAMNATION OF THERON WARE. Cloth. 12mo. $1.50. Paper. In Stone's Monthly Library, 50 cents.
Thirty-fifth thousand.

Mr. Frederic has written a daring story, and one which is doubly impressive because of the straightforward simplicity of his manner of presenting his case. His attack is certainly a bold one, and it will be strange if he does not bring down the unanimous maledictions of the cloth on his devoted head.—Chicago Evening Post.

The merit of the book is worthy of special praise because of the exceptional strength, variety, and originality of the characters.—Cleveland World.

GLORIA MUNDI. Uniform with the above. Cloth. 12mo. $1.50.

This most recent work by Mr. Frederic has excited great notice in its serial form. The story has many characteristics of style which made his former books successful.

Garland, Hamlin.

CRUMBLING IDOLS. Twelve essays on Art, dealing chiefly with Literature, Painting, and the Drama. Printed at the University Press. 16mo. $1.25.

A collection of some of Mr. Garland's essays, which attracted so much attention on their appearance in magazine form. They are on various topics, "New Fields of Art," "The Future of Fiction," "The Drift of the Drama," "The Influence of Ibsen," "Impressionism in Painting," "Local Color in Fiction," "Literary Centers and Literary Masters," and so forth.

PRAIRIE FOLKS. A new book of stories on the order of "Main-Traveled Roads." 8vo. $1.25.

Gordon, Julien.

EAT NOT THY HEART. A Novel. By the author of "A Diplomat's Diary," etc. 16mo. $1.25.

SAME, in Stone's Monthly Library. Paper. 50 cents.

It is clever, as Mrs. Cruger's writings may be depended upon to be.—Boston Times.

Her dialogue is brisk and crisp. . . . Humor and satire are becoming garments which she wear with equal grace.—Boston Herald.

Julien Gordon stands in the foremost ranks of our writers of society novels.—Chicago News.

Hammond, Wm. A.

A SON OF PERDITION. Cloth. 12mo. $1.50.

A remarkable historical novel which will be widely read and talked about. The chief character is Judas and the scene is Jerusalem at the time of the crucifixion. The author advances a new theory to account for the betrayal of the Savior.

Hichens, Robert.

FLAMES. A Novel. By the author of "A Green Carnation," "An Imaginative Man," "The Folly of Eustace," etc., with a cover design by F. R. Kimbrough. 12mo. $1.50.

Second impression.

The book is sure to be widely read.—Buffalo Commercial.

It carries on the attention of the reader from the first chapter to the last. Full of exciting incidents, very modern, excessively up to date.—London Daily Telegraph.

In his last book Mr. Hichens has entirely proved himself. His talent does not so much lie in the conventional novel, but more in his strange and fantastic medium. "Flames" suits him, has him at his best.—Pall Mall Gazette.

THE LONDONERS. A Novel of London society. The cover designed by C. F. Bragdon. 12mo. $1.50.

It is a book to be read for pure amusement, and of that one gets a plenty.—Boston Beacon.

Ibsen, Henrik.

LITTLE EYOLF. Translated by William Archer. 16mo. $1.50 net.

Second impression.

Ibsen has never written a more interesting or a more intense or characteristic play.—Westminster Gazette.

JOHN GABRIEL BORKMAN. Translated by William Archer. 16mo. $1.50 net.

It is pleasant to see sane, well-considered criticism of Henrik Ibsen, so far away from the blind cult and the blinder malignity of the past. In "John Gabriel Borkman" there is noted the perfection of his intensity, the passion of the contest of soul with soul, the supreme dramatic intuition—and also the dreary acceptance of fatality and destiny, with absolute disbelief in moral forces and the will of man.—Time and The Hour.

James, Henry.

WHAT MAISIE KNEW. A Novel. 12mo. $1.50. Third impression.

As the first study of child-life which Mr. James has ever attempted, this volume is worth the attention of all persons interested in English and American letters.

The accuracy, the cleverness, and the insight of this latest mental study of Henry James is not to be for a moment questioned. It is undoubtedly a great study.—Los Angeles Times.

It proves anew Mr. James's literary and artistic power.—Indianapolis Journal.

Mr. James's new novel is wonderfully clever, and displays to the utmost his extraordinary power of artistic craftsmanship. "What Maisie Knew" will be regarded as one of his most notable triumphs.—Charleston News and Courier.

IN THE CAGE. A Novel. Cloth. Uniform with above. 12mo. $1.25.

As was the case with "What Maisie Knew," Mr. James is entering a new field. The present story concerns the life of a telephone girl in London. The novel is full of interest and will be welcomed by the author's many followers in this country.

Kinross, Albert.

THE FEARSOME ISLAND. Being a modern rendering of the narrative of one Silas Fordred, Master Mariner of Hythe, whose shipwreck and subsequent adventures are herein set forth. Also an appendix, accounting, in a rational manner, for the seeming marvels that Silas Fordred encountered during his sojourn on the fearsome island of Don Diego Rodriguez. Cloth. 16mo. $1.25.

Kirk, Ellen Olney.

A REVOLUTIONARY LOVE STORY. Cloth. 16mo. $1.25.

Le Gallienne, Richard.

PROSE FANCIES. Second series. By the author of "The Book-Bills of Narcissus," "The Quest of the Golden Girl," etc. With a cover designed by Frank Hazenplug. 16mo. $1.25.

Third impression.

In these days of Beardsley pictures and decadent novels, it is good to find a book as sweet, as pure, as delicate as Mr. Le Gallienne's.—New Orleans Picayune.

"Prose Fancies" ought to be in every one's summer library, for it is just the kind of a book one loves to take to some secluded spot to read and dream over.—Kansas City Times.

Macleod, Fiona.

THE WASHER OF THE FORD. 16mo. $1.25.

THE SIN EATER. Cloth. 18mo. $1.00.

Maeterlinck, Maurice.

PLAYS. 16mo. $1.25.

Magruder, Julia.

MISS AYR OF VIRGINIA, AND OTHER STORIES. By the author of "The Princess Sonia," "The Violet," etc. With a cover design by F. R. Kimbrough. 16mo. $1.25.

By means of original incident and keen portraiture, "Miss Ayr of Virginia, and Other Stories," is made a decidedly readable collection. In the initial tale the character of the young Southern girl is especially well drawn; Miss Magruder's most artistic work, however, is found at the end of the volume, under the title "Once More."—The Outlook.

A REALIZED IDEAL. A Novel. Cover design by Frank Hazenplug. 16mo. $1.25.

Malet, Lucas.

THE CARISSIMA. A modern grotesque. By the author of "The Wages of Sin," etc. 12mo. $1.50.

Second impression.

 This is the first novel which Lucas Malet has written since "The Wages of Sin."

The strongest piece of fiction written during the year, barring only the masters Meredith and Thomas Hardy.—Kansas City Star.

There are no dull pages in "The Carissima," no perfunctory people. Every character that goes in and out on the mimic stage is fully rounded, and the central one provokes curiosity, like those of that Sphinx among novelists, Mr. Henry James. Lucas Malet has caught the very trick of James's manner, and the likeness presses more than once.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Merrick, Leonard.

ONE MAN'S VIEW. By the author of "A Daughter of the Philistines," etc. 16mo. $1.00.

The story of an ambitious American girl and her attempts to get on the English stage, her marriage and subsequent troubles, and the final happiness of every one. The author's point of view and the story itself are unusual and interesting.

Very well told.—The Outlook.

Moore, F. Frankfort.

THE IMPUDENT COMEDIAN AND OTHERS. Illustrated. 12mo. $1.50.

Several of the stories have appeared in The Chap-Book; others are now published for the first time. They all relate to seventeenth and eighteenth century characters—Nell Gwynn, Kitty Clive, Oliver Goldsmith, Dr. Johnson, and David Garrick. They are bright, witty, and dramatic.

Capital short stories.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A thing of Joy.—Buffalo Express.

The person who has a proper eye to the artistic in fiction will possess them ere another day shall dawn.—Scranton Tribune.

Full of the mannerisms of the stage and thoroughly Bohemian in atmosphere.—Boston Herald.

The celebrated actresses whom he takes for his heroines sparkle with feminine liveliness of mind.—New York Tribune.

A collection of short stories which has a flash of the picturesqueness, the repartee, the dazzle of the age of Garrick and Goldsmith, of Peg Woffington and Kitty Clive.—Hartford Courant.

The stories are well conceived and amusing, bearing upon every page the impress of an intimate study of the fascinating period wherein they are laid.—The Dial.

Mr. F. Frankfort Moore had a capital idea when he undertook to throw into story form some of the traditional incidents of the history of the stage in its earlier English days. Nell Gwynn, Kitty Clive, Mrs. Siddons, Mrs. Abbington, and others are cleverly depicted, with much of the swagger and flavor of their times.—The Outlook.

THE JESSAMY BRIDE. A Novel. By the author of "The Impudent Comedian." 12mo. $1.50.

A novel of great interest, introducing as its chief characters Goldsmith, Johnson, Garrick, Sir Joshua Reynolds, and others. It is really a companion volume to "The Impudent Comedian." The first large English edition of "The Jessamy Bride" was exhausted before publication. The great popularity of his other books is sufficient guaranty of the entertaining qualities of this latest volume.

Admirably done.—Detroit Free Press.

It is doubtful if anything he has written will be as well and as widely appreciated as "The Jessamy Bride."—Kansas City Times.

This story seems to me the strongest and sincerest bit of fiction I have read since "Quo Vadis."—George Merriam Hyde in The Book Buyer.

A novel in praise of the most lovable of men of letters, not even excepting Charles Lamb, must be welcome, though in it the romance of Goldsmith's life may be made a little too much of for strict truth . . . Mr. Moore has the history of the time and of the special circle at his finger-ends. He has lived in its atmosphere, and his transcripts are full of vivacity. . . . "The Jessamy Bride" is a very good story, and Mr. Moore has never written anything else so chivalrous to man or woman.—The Bookman.

The power and art of the book are beyond question.—Hartford Courant.

It is one of the most notable books of the year.—Chicago Daily News.

"A Child of the Jago" will prove one of the immediate and great successes of the season.—Boston Times.

The description of the great fight between Josh Perrott and Billy Leary is a masterpiece.—Punch.

Payne, Will.

The Money Captain. Cloth. 16mo. $1.25.

The publication of Mr. Payne's other book, "Jerry, the Dreamer," served admirably to introduce this author. His present book is a strong novel, the main theme of which treats of the government of our cities by large private corporations. It does not aim to point out any new solution of the municipal problems, but shows, in a disinterested way, how materially the average community is affected.

In Buncombe County. 16mo. $1.25.

"In Buncombe County" is bubbling over with merriment—one could not be blue with such a companion for an hour.—Boston Times.

In a Dike Shanty. With a cover design by Frank Hazenplug. 16mo. $1.25.

Of the same general character as this author's "Tenting on Stony Beach," but written with more vigor and compactness. Each of the persons in this outing-sketch is strongly individualized, and an effective little love story is interwoven. The author has a certain hardness of tone which gives strength to her work."—Atlantic Monthly.

Sharp, William.

VISTAS. 600 copies. Printed at the University Press on laid paper. 16mo. Cloth. $1.25 net.

THE ISLAND OF DR. MOREAU. $1.25.

A wonderfully strong and unique story.

This is the book about which there has been such a controversy in England.

Readers of "The Time Machine," "The Wonderful Visit," and "The Stolen Bacillus," will be prepared for something strange and sensational from Mr. Wells' pen. In "The Island of Dr. Moreau" they get it. It is a book full of horrors, but free from the least suspicion of outraging Mrs. Grundy. To say it is a work of genius is to do it an inadequate justice.—London Literary World.

Burton, Sir Richard F.

THE JEW, THE GYPSY, AND EL ISLAM. Edited with a preface and brief notes by W. H. Wilkins, author of the "Romance of Isabel Lady Burton." In large demy 8vo, cloth gilt, and gilt top, with photogravure portrait of the author from picture by the late Lord Leighton. $3.50 net.

The announcement of another book from the pen of the famous orientalist and explorer will be received with interest by a great number of people. This book, which is not a translation, but an original work, is composed, as the title indicates, of three parts, each separate and complete in itself. Of these, the first two, "The Jew" and "The Gypsy," are deeply interesting ethnological studies, containing the fruits of much personal observation and original research. The third part, "El Islam," is a profound and sympathetic study of the Muhammadan religion. Thus the volume is made up of some of the most valuable of the unpublished Burton MSS., to which so much interest is attached, and forms an admirable example of the work of the famous Oriental traveler in fields which he made his own.

Coleman, Oliver.

SUCCESSFUL HOUSES. Finely illustrated. Cloth. 8vo. $1.25.

Every room in the house is taken up in the book and methods of treatment suggested. Mr. Coleman's articles have been widely read in the House Beautiful, and it is safe to say that no book on Interior Decoration has ever been published which is so practical and so completely governed by the requirements of good taste. Many half tone illustrations of interiors accompany the text.

Curtis, William E.

THE YANKEES OF THE EAST. A book of letters on Japan. Illustrated. 2 vols. $4.00.

In a five-column review of Mr. Curtis's book, the New York Sun gives it a prominent place among the recent contributions to the literature of travel and observation. Now, perhaps, more than at any time during the latter half of this century, such books are read with care and interest. This fact has led to an outpouring of foreign letters and books of travel, the great majority of which are written by prejudiced observers, or those who do not observe. Mr. Curtis's book stands quite apart.—The Daily Tatler.

De Fontenoy, The Marquise.

EVE'S GLOSSARY. By the author of "Queer Sprigs of Gentility," with decorations in two colors by Frank Hazenplug. Illustrated. 4to. $2.00.

Fletcher, Horace.

HAPPINESS AS FOUND IN FORETHOUGHT MINUS FEARTHOUGHT, AND OTHER SUGGESTIONS IN MENTICULTURE. 12mo. $1.00.

The enormous popularity of Mr. Fletcher's simple philosophy, as shown in the sale of his first volume "Menticulture," is a sufficient evidence of the prospects of the new book. In it he develops further the ideas of menticulture, and urges with energy and directness his plea for the avoidance of worry.

MENTICULTURE: or the A-B-C of True Living. 12mo. $1.00.
Twentieth Thousand.

Gronlund, Laurence.

THE NEW ECONOMY, a peaceful solution of the social problem. Author of "The Co-operative Commonwealth," etc. 12mo. Cloth. $1.25.

In his previous books, the author has been criticized for his great dependence on theory, and not enough on fact. In his present work, he proves how by simple and practical methods society can be materially changed within a short space of time. He advocates many new methods which will be found interesting and instructive, not only to students of sociology, but to the average reader as well.

Poe, Edgar Allan.

THE WORKS OF EDGAR ALLAN POE. Newly collected, edited, and for the first time revised after the author's final manuscript corrections, by Edmund Clarence Stedman and George Edward Woodberry, with many portraits, facsimiles, and pictures by Albert Edward Sterner.

This is the only complete edition of Poe's works. The entire writings have been revised; innumerable errors have been corrected; quotations have been verified, and the work now stands—for the first time—as Poe wished it to stand. The editors contribute a memoir, critical introduction, and notes; the variorum texts are given and new matter has been added. The portraits include several which have never appeared in book form before, and the printing has been carefully done at the University Press, in Cambridge, on specially made, deckled-edge paper. In fine—the addition aims to be definitive, and is intended alike for the librarian, the student, and the book-lover.

The ten volumes, cloth, together in a box, $15.00 net; or separately, $1.50 net.

Half crushed levant, ten volumes, $40.00 net; or the five volumes of tales, $20.00 a set.

Swing, David.

OLD PICTURES OF LIFE. With an introduction by Franklin H. Head. In two volumes. 16mo. Cloth, $2.00; half crushed levant, $5.00.

A collection of Professor Swing's best essays, now for the first time published. They treat of subjects of all ages—from a splendid review of Homer's Odyssey—"An Old Picture of Life"—to "Linda Mellett"—a sensational novelette of the end of the century. They are nearly all literary, and represent the most lasting and serious part of Professor Swing's work.

Whigham, H. J.

How to Play Golf. A book for beginners.

Illustrated with seventy-five full-page Chronomatographe pictures of the most prominent golfers in the country, in play. Cloth. 12mo. $1.50.

The book is not intended to compete at all with the classic works on the subject, such as Badminton, but it gives in concise form suggestions and directions for beginners and for older players, without being overburdened with a mass of discussion and detail. It addresses itself especially to the needs of American players, and the subjects of its many illustrations are chosen for the most part from among them.

The pictures, taken from the long films, such as are used in the chronomatograph, vitascope, cinematograph, now familiar to all theater-goers, will give with absolute accuracy the position of player, club and ball in every part of the swing. This is the first time that such a means has been employed in any athletic handbook.

The Spanish-American War.

By eye witnesses. Fully illustrated. Cloth. 8vo. $1.50.

This volume represents something entirely new in historical writing. Every incident of the present war is vividly described by some one who was actually on the ground, and can, therefore, write accurately about what occurred.

The illustrations are not on the order of the many "War Portfolios," but are taken from photographs actually snapped in the field and on the battleships.

Etiquette for Americans.

Cloth. 16mo. $1.25.

It is probable that no woman thoroughly qualified to write upon this subject would be willing to sign her name to this book. It is written by a person who is regarded all over the country as an authority on this subject. Matters of good form are so constantly changing that there is at present a great need for such a book.

His gorgeousness of imagery revels and is at home among the mighty men and sublime landscapes of the ancient past. A soberer pen would fail to reproduce the men and their surroundings in just proportions and coloring. We welcome, therefore, and heartily commend this noble volume, with its fresh illustrations, clear type, and handsome binding, hoping that our dear old Bible, ever new, because so human and yet divine, and hence adapted to our profoundest necessities, may become yet more thoroughly understood and universally read."

COURSES OF STUDY OF QUARTERLY AND ANNUAL CONFERENCE PREACHERS IN THE UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH.

Adopted by the General Conference, 1897.

The prices of the books named herein are as low as possible. It has seemed right to make a difference in the cost of most of the books between those paid for with the order and those charged on account. This rule will be insisted upon: If the entry is made upon the books, the Charge Price must be paid; if the cash accompanies the order, the Cash Price only will be expected. In all cases, if the books are to be sent by mail or by prepaid express, the postage must be added. Otherwise the books will be sent by express, carriage not prepaid.

Explanation.—The books for each year are divided into two classes. All must be read, but only those marked "To be examined upon" will be used in the formal examination.

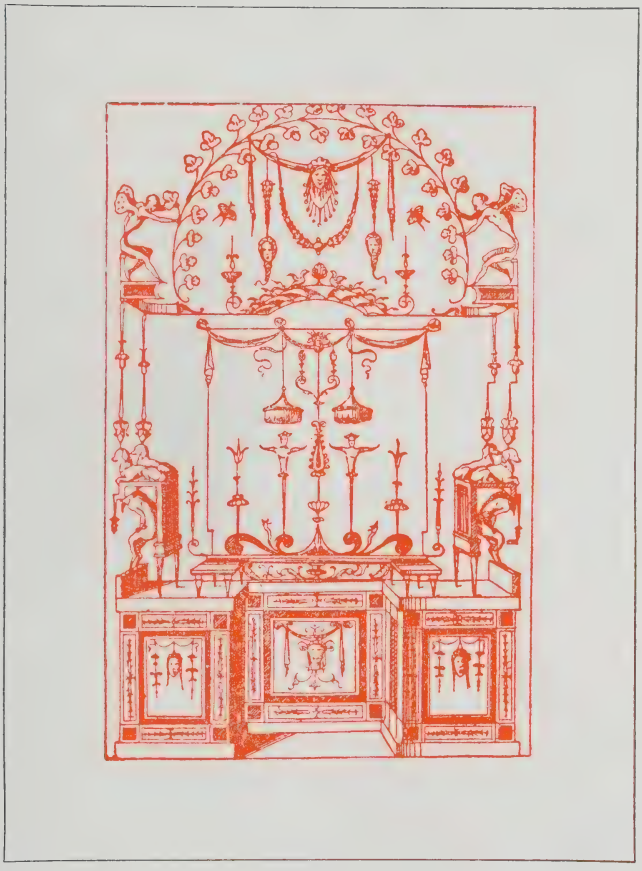
ANNOUNCEMENT OF D. B. UPDIKE

THE MERRYMOUNT PRESS

AT THE SIGN OF THE MAYPOLE

104 CHESTNUT ST., BOSTON



A. D. M D C C C X C V I I I

SOME NOTES ON THE WORK OF THE MERRYMOUNT PRESS, BOSTON

MR. D. B. UPDIKE desires to call the attention of Publishers and the Trade in general to the facilities afforded for good printing at The Merrymount Press. Books of all sorts which require an individual treatment—novels, volumes of poetry, genealogies, sermons—are undertaken at the Press under Mr. Updike's supervision, and the plates supplied to publishers, or the whole book produced and furnished in complete form.

Mr. Updike has enlarged his interesting founts of old style types to such proportions that he is now equipped for book-work. And a new press specially constructed for very delicate work has also been installed. Among recent founts new to The Merrymount Press are:

Several interesting series of English types dating from the beginning of this century, with their appropriate ornaments.

A series of French types after the best old models.

A series of Roman types of the sixteenth century from the original matrices (German).

A curious fount of Spanish Italic.

Some Dutch and Italian series of figures and initials.

Some interesting ornaments dating from about the beginning of the present century. In addition to these, old Italian wood-blocks, and French copper plates, a stock of old hand-made paper from a mill in the north of Italy, and marbled paper of the eighteenth century, have also been bought.

Estimates for work will be furnished on application. The Books alluded to on the following pages were set up at The Merrymount Press. The increase in the work of the Press (which has more than doubled even during the past year) testifies to the demand for good printing. A great variety of styles are successfully carried out from the material at Mr. Updike's disposal; and his aim is to vary his work so widely that the distinguishing mark of the Press shall not be a certain "manner," but an excellence in many manners.

is curious old diary, entitled, "A Letter Book and Abstract of Out Services," and covering the ars from 1743 to 1751, was discovered some years ago, among the papers of a late president of own University. It consists partly of parochial notes, and partly of the news of the Narragant country, of the daily incidents of Dr. MacSparran's domestic life, and the social events of the untry-side. The document is the property of the Diocese of Rhode Island. The interesting light ich it sheds upon the life of a country clergyman in Rhode Island during the eighteenth cen- y has made it worth preservation, and it is carefully edited by the Rev. Daniel Goodwin, mer rector of S. Paul's. The book is printed in a style characteristic of the colonial period, and expected to contain portraits of Dr. MacSparran and his wife, after the originals by Smybert.

The borders by Mr. Goodhue are full of vigour and display a really fine sense of decoration. . . . The heraldic designs on copper by Mr. Sherborn are masterpieces of their sort. . . . As a piece of fine press-work, the volume is notable. . . . Good taste marks every detail of its production.

ELEMENTS

OF THE

DIFFERENTIAL AND INTEGRAL CALCULUS

BY

PROF. WM. S. HALL,

Of Lafayette College, Easton, Pa.

SOME CHARACTERISTIC FEATURES.

Contains a Chapter on Differential Equations. This distinguishes it from all other elementary books and will certainly be greatly in its favor.

Gives a Table of Integrals arranged for convenience of reference. This Table is well adapted for ordinary uses and is more extended than any given in books of the same scope.

There are a number of numerical problems illustrating the text and showing actual applications in engineering practice. In this respect it differs from all other books, and this feature will recommend it especially to engineering departments of Technical Schools.

The two branches of the Calculus are treated together. This is a very natural treatment, making the subject more intelligible and economizing space.

All the formulas for differentiation are established by the methods of limits. But the method of infinitesimals is fully explained, and the differential notation is used when there is any advantage gained by it.

More subjects are presented than are usually given in elementary text books Important things are treated at considerable length, while less important things are given but a brief treatment.

The formulas for differentiation are expressed in terms of v, v being a function of x, instead of being expressed directly in terms of x. Hence the necessity of the rule for differentiating a function of a function is avoided.

The book will be shorter than any other book which covers as much ground. It will have about 250 pages.

The book is not simply a manual. The effort has been to make the treatment less formal than usual. Illustrations are given in introducing the subject to make the fundamental conceptions as clear as possible.

Quite a number of historical references are given.

Circular measure is carefully explained.

The symbol $\frac{\delta y}{\delta x}$ is used for a partial derivative.

For "arc sin x" the alternative form "$\sin^{-1}x$" is frequently used.

APPLIED MECHANICS

A TREATISE FOR THE USE OF STUDENTS WHO HAVE TIME TO WORK EXPERIMENTAL, NUMERICAL, AND GRAPHICAL EXERCISES ILLUSTRATING THE SUBJECT.

BY

JOHN PERRY, M.E., D.Sc., F.R.S.

WHIT. SCH., ASSOC. M. INST. C.E.

PROFESSOR OF MECHANICS AND MATHEMATICS IN THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF SCIENCE, SOUTH KENSINGTON; VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE PHYSICAL SOCIETY; VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE INSTITUTION OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS.

[EXTRACT FROM REVIEW.]

A lifetime devoted to teaching technical science and engineering subjects has placed Prof. Perry in the position of an authority, whose opinions are neither to be disregarded nor lightly weighed. His long experience and sound scientific insight attach importance to his views as to what ought to be taught in the teaching of applied mechanics, and as to the way in which it should be taught. He has now given the world a book that is designed to embody his opinions in both these respects—a text-book that is far more than any ordinary text-book; a guide for the student of what to learn and how to learn it, and for the teacher as much of how to teach as of what syllabus to arrange; and indeed more—a polemic. The keynote to Prof. Perry's method is to be found in the introductory chapter of the book. He gives us in the preface, it is true, an outline of the arrangement of studies which he considers most desirable, and tells us that the contents of his book are practically what has been for many years the course of instruction in applied mechanics at the Finsbury Technical College; but this is merely the husk and shell of the matter, for the spicy kernel we must search the book itself—and we get our first taste of the full flavour before we have read to the bottom of the first page. —Electrician.

JOHN GILBERT, YEOMAN.

By R. G. Soans. With frontispiece illustration by Lancelot Speed. Crown 8vo, cloth. $1.50.

This historical novel treats of stirring Cromwellian days, when Royalists and Parliamentarians were still at strife, and a prominent character in the novel is the Protector himself, who narrowly escapes death at the hands of the Royalist heroine. It is a new novel by a new writer and is a story of considerable length, and has been very favorably commented on by papers of all denominations as a striking and wholesome picture of a very interesting period, combined with a very pretty romance.

THE STOLEN FIDDLE.

By G. H. MAYSON. Crown 8vo, cloth gilt, $1.25.

The scene of this novel is mostly laid in the English Lake District. The interest of the story turns largely on a trial in connection with a stolen violin; the denouement of the trial is highly dramatic, and the technical evidence curious and instructive. The author is well known in the musical world, and has worked out the story very cleverly. It will interest all musical people.

RED COAT ROMANCES.

War of the Revolution Series.

By Everett T. Tomlinson.

THREE COLONIAL BOYS. A Story of the Times of '76. 368 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

It is a story of three boys who were drawn into the events of the times, is patriotic, exciting, clean, and healthful, and instructs without appearing to. The heroes are manly boys, and no objectionable language or character is introduced. The lessons of courage and patriotism especially will be appreciated in this day. — Boston Transcript.

THREE YOUNG CONTINENTALS. A Story of the American Revolution. 364 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

This story is historically true. It is the best kind of a story either for boys or girls, and is an attractive method of teaching history.—Journal of Education, Boston.

WASHINGTON'S YOUNG AIDS. A Story of the New Jersey Campaign, 1776-1777. 391 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

The book has enough history and description to give value to the story which ought to captivate enterprising boys. — Quarterly Book Review.

The historical details of the story are taken from old records. These include accounts of the life on the prison ships and prison houses of New York, the raids of the pine robbers, the tempting of the Hessians, the end of Fagan and his band, etc. — Publisher's Weekly.

Few boys' stories of this class show so close a study of history combined with such genial story-telling power. — The Outlook.

TWO YOUNG PATRIOTS. A Story of Burgoyne's Invasion. 366 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

The crucial campaign in the American struggle for independence came in the summer of 1777, when Gen. John Burgoyne marched from Canada to cut the rebellious colonies asunder and join another British army which was to proceed up the valley of the Hudson. The American forces were brave, hard fighters, and they worried and harassed the British and finally defeated them. The history of this campaign is one of great interest and is well brought out in the part which the "two young patriots" took in the events which led up to the surrender of General Burgoyne and his army.

The set of four volumes in a box, $6.00.

SUCCESS. By Orison Swett Marden. Author of "Pushing to the Front," "Architects of Fate," etc. 317 pp. Cloth, $1.25.

It is doubtful whether any success books for the young have appeared in modern times which are so thoroughly packed from lid to lid with stimulating, uplifting, and inspiring material as the self-help books written by Orison Swett Marden. There is not a dry paragraph nor a single line of useless moralizing in any of his books.

To stimulate, inspire, and guide is the mission of his latest book, "Success," and helpfulness is its keynote. Its object is to spur the perplexed youth to act the Columbus to his own undiscovered possibilities; to urge him not to wait for great opportunities, but to seize common occasions and make them great, for he cannot tell when fate may take his measure for a higher place.

Brain and Brawn Series.

By William Drysdale.

THE YOUNG REPORTER. A Story of Printing House Square. 300 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

I commend the book unreservedly. — Golden Rule.
"The Young Reporter" is a rattling book for boys. — New York Recorder.
The best boys' book I ever read. — Mr. Phillips, Critic for New York Times.

THE FAST MAIL. A Story of a Train Boy. 328 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

"The Fast Mail" is one of the very best American books for boys brought out this season. Perhaps there could be no better confirmation of this assertion than the fact that the little sons of the present writer have greedily devoured the contents of the volume, and are anxious to know how soon they are to get a sequel. — The Art Amateur, New York.

THE BEACH PATROL. A Story of the Life-Saving Service. 318 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

The style of narrative is excellent, the lesson inculcated of the best, and, above all, the boys and girls are real. — New York Times.
A book of adventure and daring, which should delight as well as stimulate to higher ideals of life every boy who is so happy as to possess it. — Examiner.
It is a strong book for boys and young men. — Buffalo Commercial.

THE YOUNG SUPERCARGO. A Story of the Merchant Marine. 352 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

Kit Silburn is a real "Brain and Brawn" boy, full of sense and grit and sound good qualities. Determined to make his way in life, and with no influential friends to give him a start, he does a deal of hard work between the evening when he first meets the stanch Captain Griffith, and the proud day when he becomes purser of a great ocean steamship. His sea adventures are mostly on shore; but whether he is cleaning the cabin of the North Cape, or landing cargo in Yucatan, or hurrying the spongers and fruitmen of Nassau, or exploring London, or sight seeing with a disguised prince in Marseilles, he is always the same busy, thoroughgoing, manly Kit. Whether or not he has a father alive is a question of deep interest throughout the story; but that he has a loving and loyal sister is plain from the start.

The set of four volumes in a box, $6.00.

SERAPH, THE LITTLE VIOLINISTE. By Mrs. C. V. Jamieson. 300 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

The scene of the story is the French quarter of New Orleans, and charming bits of local color add to its attractiveness. — The Boston Journal.
Perhaps the most charming story she has ever written is that which describes Seraph, the little violiniste. — Transcript, Boston.

His descriptions of the natural history and botany of the country are very interesting. — Detroit Free Press.

The actual truthfulness of the book needs no gloss to add to its absorbing interest.— The Book Buyer, New York.

OVER THE ANDES; or, Our Boys in New South America. By Hezekiah Butterworth. 368 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

No writer of the present century has done more and better service than Hezekiah Butterworth in the production of helpful literature for the young. In this volume he writes, in his own fascinating way, of a country too little known by American readers.— Christian Work.

Mr. Butterworth is careful of his historic facts, and then he charmingly interweaves his quaint stories, legends, and patriotic adventures as few writers can. — Chicago Inter-Ocean.

The subject is an inspiring one, and Mr. Butterworth has done full justice to the high ideals which have inspired the men of South America. — Religious Telescope.

LOST IN NICARAGUA; or, The Lands of the Great Canal. By Hezekiah Butterworth. 295 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

The book pictures the wonderful land of Nicaragua and continues the story of the travelers whose adventures in South America are related in "Over the Andes." In this companion book to "Over the Andes," one of the boy travelers who goes into the Nicaraguan forests in search of a quetzal, or the royal bird of the Aztecs, falls into an ancient idol cave, and is rescued in a remarkable way by an old Mosquito Indian. The narrative is told in such a way as to give the ancient legends of Guatemala, the story of the chieftain, Nicaragua, the history of the Central American Republics, and the natural history of the wonderlands of the ocelot, the conger, parrots, and monkeys.

Since the voyage of the Oregon, of 13,000 miles to reach Key West the American people have seen what would be the value of the Nicaragua Canal. The book gives the history of the projects for the canal, and facts about Central America, and a part of it was written in Costa Rica. It enters a new field.

The set of four volumes in a box, $6.00.

The set of three volumes in a box, $3.75.

A GIRL OF '76. By Amy E. Blanchard. 331 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

"A Girl of '76" lays its scene in and around Boston where the principal events of the early period of the Revolution were enacted. Elizabeth Hall, the heroine, is the daughter of a patriot who is active in the defense of his country. The story opens with a scene in Charlestown, where Elizabeth Hall and her parents live. The emptying of the tea in Boston Harbor is the means of giving the little girl her first strong impression as to the seriousness of her father's opinions, and causes a quarrel between herself and her schoolmate and playfellow, Amos Dwight.

A SOLDIER OF THE LEGION. By Chas. Ledyard Norton. 300 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

Two boys, a Carolinian and a Virginian, born a few years apart during the last half of the eighteenth century, afford the groundwork for the incidents of this tale.

The younger of the two was William Henry Harrison, sometime President of the United States, and the elder, his companion and faithful attendant through life, was Carolinus Bassett, Sergeant of the old First Infantry, and in an irregular sort of a way Captain of Virginian Horse. He it is who tells the story a few years after President Harrison's death, his granddaughter acting as critic and amanuensis.

The story has to do with the early days of the Republic, when the great, wild, unknown West was beset by dangers on every hand, and the Government at Washington was at its wits' end to provide ways and means to meet the perplexing problems of national existence.

THE ORCUTT GIRLS; or, One Term at the Academy. By CHARLOTTE M. VAILE. 316 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

A well-told story of school life which will interest its readers deeply, and hold before them a high standard of living. The heroines are charming girls and their adventures are described in an entertaining way. — Pilgrim Teacher.

Mrs. Vaile gives us a story here which will become famous as a description of a phase of New England educational history which has now become a thing of the past, with an exception here and there. — Boston Transcript.

SUE ORCUTT. A Sequel to "The Orcutt Girls." By CHARLOTTE M. VAILE. 330 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

It is a charming story from beginning to end and is written in that easy flowing style which characterizes the best stories of our best writers. — Christian Work.

It is wholly a piece of good fortune for young folks that brings this book to market in such ample season for the selection of holiday gifts. — Denver Republican.

The story teaches a good moral without any preaching, in fact it is as good in a way as Miss Alcott's books, which is high but deserved praise. — Chronicle.

THE M. M. C. A Story of the Great Rockies. By CHARLOTTE M. VAILE. 232 pp. Cloth, $1.25.

The pluck of the little school teacher, struggling against adverse circumstances, to hold for her friend the promising claim, which he has secured after years of misfortune in other ventures, is well brought out. The almost resistless bad luck which has made "Old Hopefull's" nickname a hollow mockery still followed him when a fortune was almost within his grasp. The little school teacher was, however, a new element in "Old Hopefull's" experience, and the result, as the story shows, was most satisfactory.

THE ROMANCE OF DISCOVERY; or, a Thousand Years of Exploration, etc. By WILLIAM ELLIOT GRIFFIS. 305 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

It is a book of profit and interest involving a variety of correlated instances and influences which impart the flavor of the unexpected. — Philadelphia Presbyterian.

An intensely interesting narrative following well-authenticated history. — Telescope.

Boys will read it for the romance in it and be delighted, and when they get through, behold! they have read a history of America. — Awakener.

THE ROMANCE OF AMERICAN COLONIZATION; or, How the Foundations of Our Country Were Laid. By WILLIAM ELLIOT GRIFFIS. 295 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

To this continent, across a great ocean, came two distinct streams of humanity and two rival civilizations, — the one Latin, led and typified by the Spanish, with Portugese and French also, and the other Germanic, or Anglo-Saxon, led and typified by the English and reinforced by Dutch, German, and British people.

A SON OF THE REVOLUTION. An Historical Novel of the Days of Aaron Burr. By ELBRIDGE S. BROOKS. 301 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

The story of Tom Edwards, adventurer, as it is connected with Aaron Burr, is in every way faithful to the facts of history. As the story progresses the reader will wonder where the line between fact and fiction is to be drawn. Among the characters that figure in it are President Jefferson, Gen Andrew Jackson, General Wilkinson, and many other prominent government and army officials.

Her descriptions of boys and girls are so true, and her knowledge of their ways is so accurate, that one must feel an admiration for her complete mastery of her chosen field. — The Argus, Albany.

Her New York friends grow very fond of her and finally persuade her to visit them during the winter. There new pleasures and new temptations present themselves, and Katrina's character develops through them to new strength.

"Select Notes."

BY

F. N. PELOUBET, D. D., and
M. A. PELOUBET.

A Commentary on the Sunday-School Lessons.

"A student of the Bible who hasn't Peloubet's 'Notes' is like a ship without a rudder," says one of our leading Sunday-school men, and there is surely many other teachers who weekly depend upon Dr. Peloubet to turn their thoughts towards the desired haven that would gladly second this affirmation.

No other book, save the Bible, can record such enormous yearly sales for over a quarter of a century as Peloubet's Notes, and upon no other book is lavished every year such expenditures, in order that every issue may excel its predecessor.

The volume for 1899 is no exception. In every detail that the most critical scholars could suggest, or its publishers' experience indicate, the book has been improved, and it is sent out, knowing that its exceptional merit, backed by its splendid reputation, will give it a welcome from every teacher and scholar who desire to know the inmost riches of the scriptural lesson.

In variety of incidents, in strength of comparisons, in beauty and power of illustrations, as well as by its very many instructive and interesting pictures, this year's issue is unequaled.

The best of paper, the most skilful printing, and the strongest binding, all aid in making Peloubet's "Select Notes" for 1899 a right-hand assistant for every student of the Word, whose place cannot be filled by any concordance or other commentary.

The volume is beautifully illustrated by original sketches and engravings prepared solely for it, and it will have two full-page colored maps besides numerous small outline maps of the Old and New Testament.

Cloth, price, $1.25. Cloth, Interleaved Edition, price, $2.00.

Two Young Patriots. A story of Burgoyne's Invasion. By EVERETT T. TOMLINSON. 366 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

The crucial campaign in the American struggle for independence came in the summer of 1777, when Gen. John Burgoyne marched from Canada to cut the rebellious colonies asunder and join another British army which was to proceed up the valley of the Hudson. The history of this campaign is one of great interest and is well brought out in the part which the "two young patriots" took in the events which led up to the surrender of General Burgoyne and his army.

A Soldier of the Legion. By CHAS. LEDYARD NORTON. 300 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

Two boys, a Carolinian and a Virginian, born a few years apart during the last half of the eighteenth century, afford the groundwork for the incidents of this tale.

The younger of the two was William Henry Harrison, sometime President of the United States, and the elder, his companion and faithful attendant through life, was Carolinus Bassett, Sergeant of the old First Infantry, and in an irregular sort of a way Captain of Virginian Horse. He it is who tells the story a few years after President Harrison's death.

Lost in Nicaragua; or, The Lands of the Great Canal. By HEZEKIAH BUTTERWORTH. 295 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

The book pictures the wonderland of Nicaragua, and continues the story of the travelers whose adventures in South America are related in "Over the Andes." The narrative is told in such a way as to give the ancient legends of Guatemala, the story of the chieftain, Nicaragua, the history of the Central American Republics, and the natural history of the wonderlands of the ocelot, the cougar, parrots, and monkeys.

The Young Supercargo. A Story of the Merchant Marine. By WM. DRYSDALE. 352 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

Kit Silburn is a real "Brain and Brawn" boy, full of sense and grit and sound good qualities. Determined to make his way in life, and with no influential friends to give him a start, he does a deal of hard work between the evening when he first meets the stanch Captain Griffith, and the proud day when he becomes purser of a great ocean steamship. His sea adventures are mostly on shore; but whether he is cleaning the cabin of the North Cape, or landing cargo in Yucatan, or hurrying the spongers and fruitmen of Nassau, or exploring London, or sight seeing with a disguised prince in Marseilles, he is always the same busy, thoroughgoing, manly Kit.

The Romance of American Colonization; or, How the Foundations of Our Country Were Laid. By WILLIAM ELLIOT GRIFFIS. 295 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

To this continent, across a great ocean, came two distinct streams of humanity and two rival civilizations,—the one Latin, led and typified by the Spanish, with Portugese and French also, and the other Germanic, or Anglo-Saxon, led and typified by the English and reinforced by Dutch, German, and British people.

Katrina. By ELLEN DOUGLAS DELAND. 340 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

"Katrina" is the story of a girl who was brought up by an aunt in a remote village of Vermont. Her life is somewhat lonely until a family from New York come there to board during the summer. Katrina's aunt, who is a reserved woman, has told her little of her antecedents, and she supposes that she has no other relatives. Her New York friends grow very fond of her, and finally persuade her to visit them during the winter. There new pleasures and new temptations present themselves, and Katrina's character develops through them to new strength.

A Girl of '76. By AMY E. BLANCHARD. 331 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

"A Girl of '76" lays its scene in and around Boston where the principal events of the early period of the Revolution were enacted. Elizabeth Hall, the heroine, is the daughter of a patriot who is active in the defense of his country. The story opens with a scene in Charlestown, where Elizabeth Hall and her parents live. The emptying of the tea in Boston Harbor is the means of giving the little girl her first strong impression as to the seriousness of her father's opinions.

A Son of the Revolution. An Historical Novel of the Days of Aaron Burr. By ELBRIDGE S. BROOKS. 301 pp. Cloth, $1.50.

The story of Tom Edwards, adventurer, as it is connected with Aaron Burr, is in every way faithful to the facts of history. As the story progresses the reader will wonder where the line between fact and fiction is to be drawn. Among the characters that figure in it are President Jefferson, Gen. Andrew Jackson, General Wilkinson, and many other prominent government and army officials.

The M. M. C. A Story of the Great Rockies. By CHARLOTTE M. VAILE. 232 pp. Cloth, $1.00.

The pluck of the little school teacher, struggling against adverse circumstances, to hold for her friend the promising claim, which he has secured after years of misfortune in other ventures, is well brought out. The little school teacher was a new element in "Old Hopefull's" experience, and the result, as the story shows, was most satisfactory.

SAMBO is a quaint picaninny, Miss Lucy's special pet, and good-hearted Aunt Dinah's imp of mischief, to be alternately scolded and spoiled—threatened with all the terrors of Old Bogey one moment, to be fed on white bread and turkey the next. He is an amusing child study, with his fondness for custard, his infantile belief in Paradises, which are very material and earthly, his propensity to go to sleep and dream, and wake up from delicious visions of the night to find himself in the hands of the Philistines, his enemies.

His prayer to Santa Claus is pathetic, and yet ridiculous:

"Dear Marster San'a Claus, who lobes all chil'en, weder dey am white or dey be pickaninny, put somfin' in my stockin' dis yer night; and as dar is a hole in de toe, I specks yo' betta put de orange in fust."

He gets what he wants after some disappointment, and, after some instruction to Santa Claus as to next Christmas through the stovepipe hole of his room, he has an afterthought—one of those second thoughts which are the best of all. Clambering back to the bureau top, he put his mouth close to the stovepipe hole and whispered:

"Nex' Chris'mas yo' kin bwing me a sled. If yo' aint got dat, yo' kin mek it skeets."

Miss Katherine Gassaway draws the illustrations in strict black and white line; a difficult thing to do, and give life and expression. Her success has been very creditable to her—especially good on Lucy teaching her little Sunday-school, Aunt Dinah and Sambo; the frightened picaninny getting out of the window to seek for the Paradise of which he has heard, and Sambo telling Santa Claus; "I's bery sawry Aunt Dinah druv yo' up de chimley."

There are wholesome rounds of laughter lurking all through the pages."

"The Little Dame and the Wild Animals."

WHAT THE PRESS SAYS.

BOSTON DAILY GLOBE. BOSTON, December 15th, 1897.

"Is a wee fairy story by a 7-year-old girl, illustrated by herself. It is a delightful little nursery tale."

THE CHICAGO EVENING POST. CHICAGO, December 15th, 1897.

"It is a very lively tale, wherein exciting events are plentiful, the illustrations being in keeping with the text. One must admit that the 'little dame' is an outrageously irresponsible character, just the sort of person children admire, however. The small author's fancy is no mean thing, and her story constitutes the most irresistible prattle that one has encountered in many days."

THE CHICAGO DISPATCH. CHICAGO, December 11, 1897.

"The story is quaint and told as a child would naturally tell it. There is humor in it, the pictures are funny, and the story has peculiar charms for the children. Considered as the work of so young an author it is really a remarkable production."

THE PHILADELPHIA TIMES. PHILADELPHIA, December 12th, 1895.

A perfectly delightful work is the history of "The Little Dame and the Wild Animals," received from Williams and Wilkins Company, Baltimore. * * * "A better quarter-dollar's worth could not be asked." * * * "The illustrations, by the author, have all the fascinating sincerity of the text."

BALTIMORE SUN. BALTIMORE, November 26, 1897.

"This is a quaint little story, told as a child might tell it, and funny enough for anybody who has not forgotten that he was a child"

THE WASHINGTON EVENING STAR. WASHINGTON, December 16, 1897.

"This quaint appearing and reading story has itself a story. It was first printed in 1880 by a twelve-year-old boy on an amateur press. The illustrator was the publisher's seven-year-old sister. The combination was innocently artistic, and the funny little tale is well worth reproduction. As a Christmas novelty it is a striking success."

BALTIMORE AMERICAN. BALTIMORE, November 28th, 1897.

"The volume was presented to a youngster who is not yet 7, for his opinion. He has read it through at least a dozen times; has committed the most of it to memory; has laughed at the wild cat that lost its tail, until tears rolled down his cheeks, and is still a victim to its peculiar charms.

BUFFALO EVENING NEWS. BUFFALO, N. Y., Sunday, Dec. 19th, 1897.

"A cute little child's book. It is a quaint story told by a child and illustrated with a child's drawings." "The little folks will be interested in it and that is the highest praise that can be bestowed on a child's book."

THE TROY DAILY TIMES. TROY, N. Y., December 16, 1897.

"It is a pity that the name of the talented author of this little volume is not given. Even though she is but seven years old she is entitled to enjoy the fame that this remarkable literary production has won for for her. The story is a fairy tale, but it shows genuine art in its construction. The concensus of opinion of juvenile critics of the book is flattering, and that is all that needs to be said."

NORTHERN BUDGET. TROY.

"It was originally printed seventeen years ago by an older brother of the author on an amateur press and has just been resuscitated, and in a few days passed to a second edition. It is such a story as a child might tell, and such a story as a child of that age will be likely to appreciate."

THE EDUCATOR. BUFFALO, N. Y.

"This little novelty will interest the children and encourage them to give vent to their imaginations in the art of story telling."

"'TWIXT CUPID AND CROESUS."

A CHARMING LOVE STORY TOLD AND ILLUSTRATED IN A UNIQUE WAY.

A Handsome Gift Book for all Time.

PRICE $1.50 NET.

"THANKS TO A MR. BLEAKER."

"All interested in the frequent contest 'Twixt the Croesus of the Nouveau Riche and Cupid of the potent bow and arrow (and little else), will be interested in these realistic letters from the original MSS.

"They are published with white leatherette covers, in folio form 12x9½, eighteen letters in all.

"Judges of character from hand-writing—and there is more in this than the public credits—will be able to form their own conclusions in regard to the two men and a girl in the case.

"There are eighteen drawings in wash and pen-and-ink, illustrating the eighteen letters, printed on the finest enameled paper, and so cleverly done as to almost tell the story by themselves.

"Although unintentionally wounded, Cupid, in the story, shows himself to be of a forgiving disposition, and pilots his little boat across the Atlantic with an energy which deserves to meet with success."

READ WHAT OTHERS THINK OF IT.

Boston Globe—"All whose hearts are still stirred by the old, old story, which is ever new, will welcome ''Twixt Cupid and Croesus.'"

New York Sun—"A curious book certainly is ''Twixt Cupid and Croesus.' One handles what seems to be the actual original correspondence of several persons."

Baltimore Sun—"Seldom has a charming story of fiction been told in a more unique, novel and artistic manner."

New Haven Evening Register—"A more unique love story than that just issued by the well-known artist, Chas. P. Didier, would be hard to find. The story is attractively illustrated."

Munsey's Magazine—"Mr. Didier is a draughtsman of considerable ability, but excellent as they are it is not in its illustrations that his book is remarkable."

Columbus Press—"The Press can hardly hesitate in pronouncing it the most attractive piece of book construction ever offered the public at large by an American publisher.

"The story is delightfully told and conceived with much delicacy."

Morning News, Savannah, Ga.—"The most unique of recent contributions to art and literature is a beautifully engraved and bound volume by Chas. P. Didier, of Baltimore.

Hartford Daily Times—"A large but not thick volume, handsomely bound, and will be attractive aside from the curiosity its appearance arouses."

Richmond Despatch—"This is one of the most unique conceits in the way of a romance publication we have ever seen. Beautifully and profusely illustrated."

WHAT THE PRESS SAYS:

The Boston Globe—"'Would Any Man,' by Charles Peale Didier, the author of ''Twixt Cupid and Croesus,' is a unique story of breezy incidents, in which a thread of love is carried along with masterful cleverness. The text and the illustrations are replete with spirit and finish."

The Washington Times—"Since the appearance of that remarkable conundrum, 'The Lady or the Tiger,' there has been nothing which came so near being its equal as this 'Would Any Man.'"

The Sun, Baltimore—"Mr. Didier has hitherto appeared as a writer of clever short stories; but in this, his latest work, he makes an entirely new departure. The subtle hint of a hidden crime, which runs through the novel, gives at the end a strong scene, strongly written and well sustained.

"The scene between the lovers, when Gordon pleads with her to let nothing, no matter how grave, stand between them, is one of the most powerful in the book. It would be hard to point out to-day a stronger draughtsman, illustrating his own work, than Mr. Didier."

Press-Post, Columbus, Ohio—"That he combines delightfully the talents of author and illustrator, Mr. Didier has shown in his former books, ''Twixt Cupid and Croesus' and 'R. S. V. P.,' and it is safe to say that most readers of 'Would Any Man' will incline to his side in the coming legal controversy."

"R.S.V.P.,"

A Novelette by Chas. P. Didier.

Price, $1.50.

Hartford Daily Times—"It is not to say easy whether Mr. Didier accomplishes more with the pen or the pencil. The story is told through two different modes of expression, each of which is singularly felicitous and each of which supplements the other."

Morning News, Savannah—"The novel is a bright and breezy love story. The illustrations, printing, paper and binding are chaste and elegant.

"It is seldom the case that a bright writer is a clever illustrator or vice versa, but Mr. Didier combines the talents charmingly."

Indianapolis Sentinel—"One of the neatest books as to outward appearance and one of the most unique and interesting as to quality is 'R. S. V. P.' by Charles P. Didier. This book is quite a new departure in the bookmaker's art. The illustrations place Mr. Didier well in the front ranks. They show not only technical skill, but great refinement in drawing and characterization."

GREEN'S SCHOOL HISTORY OF FLORIDA.

WITH MAPS AND ILLUSTRATIONS.

By EDWIN L. GREEN, Ph.D.
(Johns Hopkins University).

PROFESSOR OF GREEK IN CENTRAL UNIVERSITY, RICHMOND, KY.

Written primarily for the schools of Florida, under the suggestion and advice of the State Superintendent of Education, and dealing with the History of Florida from its discovery to the present time.

Chapters carefully graded into periods and subjects, and the headings are synopses of the contents of each chapter.

Twenty Maps and Seventy Illustrations, faithfully portraying the physical beginnings and growth of the country and the several peoples who in turn have inhabited and possessed it, and numerous half-tones of men prominent in its political, educational and commercial advancement, greatly aid the reader in the study of a State which at so many important epochs in the nation's history has been brought into singularly conspicuous prominence.

Marginal dates, thereby preventing any possibility of confusion; and, where necessary, explanatory notes have been added to the foot of the pages.

Questions upon the text arranged by author in such a manner that the teacher can at any moment test the scholar's intelligent conception of the narrative.

The style, while simple and clear, and designed to meet the needs of school children, is not such as to detract from its interest to the general reader.

THE FIRST COMPLETE HISTORY OF THE STATE PUBLISHED. TREATS ALIKE OF EAST AND WEST FLORIDA.

OPINION OF PROF. H. B. ADAMS, SECRETARY OF THE AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION.

JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY, BALTIMORE.

MR. EDWIN L. GREEN:

Dear Sir—I have examined your MS. of History of Florida, and am greatly interested in your project for a School Edition of the same. Nothing could better promote an intelligent understanding of the historical origin and development of Florida than a good text book upon the subject, written expressly for Florida boys and girls. Your style is simple, clear, and well adapted to the needs of youth. Your divisions of the subject matter are well made; your topical headings are suggestive, and your questions upon the text cover the ground in a very satisfactory manner.

An Enterprising Publisher and a good School Superintendent could easily make your work a great popular success in the State of Florida.

Very truly,

SUNDAY SCHOOL PAPERS.

"A greater fallacy does not exist than that the Sunday School Library is a rival of the Sunday School paper, or renders the latter unnecessary. The object of the story portion of the Sunday School library is to amuse in a harmless way. What little Churchmanship may be imbibed is exceedingly indirect. Most of the books available for our libraries do not even purport to be positively and directly, Churchly. They are, of necessity, stories first.

"The main object of the Sunday School paper —at any rate, of THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN—is to instruct; and to instruct not only the child who carries it home, but the whole family as well. Probably 95 per cent. of the families into which THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN is carried from the Sunday School, have no other religious or Churchly reading the year through. Moreover, they are not generally of the classes surfeited already with reading matter. The pictures please them, the stories interest them, and they cannot fail to read a part, at least, of the simply written Church teaching which follows in small, sugar-coated doses, week after week. These are people, too, who are not reached by any other of the Church's agencies. The great bulk of them seldom or never go to Church. Most of them are not, even nominally, connected with the parish. The missionary value of THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN, hence, is simply incalculable.

"Consequently, if both story books and the weekly paper are out of the question, by all means take the paper and drop the story books. In the paper the children have illustrated stories as well as distinctive teaching. In the story book they have only the stories. A series of lessons are included in the weekly YOUNG CHURCHMAN according to the scheme of the Joint Diocesan Committee.

"If the weekly cannot be supported, the monthly edition will be found useful, though on one-fourth the scale."—From Sunday School Methods and Means.

REMEMBER now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;

2 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:

3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

7 Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

9 And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

10 The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

Hiram's message to Solomon. 1 KINGS, 5, 6. Solomon buildeth the temple.

Before CHRIST 1014.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Hiram, sending to congratulate Solomon, is certified of his purpose to build the temple, and desired to furnish him with timber thereto. 7 Hiram, blessing God for Solomon, and requesting food for his family, furnisheth him with trees. 13 The number of Solomon's workmen and labourers.

AND [a]Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father: [b]for Hiram was ever a lover of David.

2 And [c]Solomon sent to Hiram, saying,

3 Thou knowest how that David my father could not build an house unto the name of the LORD his God [d]for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.

4 But now the LORD my God hath given me [e]rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor evil occurrent.

13 ¶ And king Solomon raised a †levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men.

14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses: a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and [n]Adoniram was over the levy.

15 [o]And Solomon had threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers in the mountains;

16 Besides the chief of Solomon's officers which were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, which ruled over the people that wrought in the work.

17 And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and [p]hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house.

18 And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders did hew them, and the ‖stonesquarers: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, [b]Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

9 Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him [c]rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be ‖Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days.

10 [h]He shall build an house for my name; and [i]he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

11 Now, my son, the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee.

12 Only the LORD [k]give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God.

13 [l]Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: [m]be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed.

THE VARIORUM REFERENCE BIBLE.

The TEXT is the AUTHORIZED VERSION with the passages marked where the rendering is considered faulty by scholars and where the reading of the original text is found to vary from the best and more recently discovered MSS., Versions, Translations, etc.

Note.—This marking is similar to the well-known reference marks, and does not interfere with the ordinary reading of the Scriptures.

The passages so marked have references in the footnotes on each page, where may be found various renderings with their authorities and various readings with the sources from which they are taken.

The earlier editions of the Variorum Bible were published prior to the Revised Version, and, in consequence, the Old Testament Editors were invited to join the Westminster Revision Committee. Many Members of that Committee have testified to the unique value of the Variorum, and to the great assistance it proved to them in the work of Revision.

All the best critical editions and translations, including the Revised Version, are collated up to date. The brief explanatory notes and interpretations have been increased, and—

The Poetical portion of the Text are set out in parallelisms characteristic of Hebrew Poetry.

The notes, thus collated, place before the reader the evidence for or against alterations of the Revised Version, and the authorities that confirm the same.

The sources from which these Annotations are taken comprise, in the OLD TESTAMENT. 90 Commentators. 14 Versions, including the Revised Version, and R. V. Marginal Readings.

NEW TESTAMENT. 78 Commentators. 6 Ancient Versions. 23 Ancient Manuscripts. 11 Critical Editions of the Text, and Revised Version and Marginal Readings.

38 But if any man be ignorant, [β] let him be ignorant.
39 Wherefore, brethren, [b] covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.
40 [β] Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAPTER 15.

3 By Christ's resurrection, 12 he proveth the necessity of our resurrection, against all such as deny the resurrection of the body. 21 The fruit, 35 and manner thereof, 51 and of the changing of them, that shall be found alive at the last day.

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel [f] which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and [h] wherein ye stand;
2 [1 l] By which also ye [2] are saved, if ye ‖ keep in memory † what I preached unto you [1], unless [m] ye [3] have believed [4] in vain.
3 For [n] I delivered unto you first of all that [o] which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins [q] according to the scriptures;
4 And that he was buried, and that he [5] rose again the third day [r] according to the scriptures:
5 [t] And that he was seen of Cephas, then [u] of the twelve:
6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.
7 After that, he was seen of James; then [a] of all the apostles.
8 [b] And last of all he was seen of me also, as of [6] ‖ one born out of due time.
9 For I am [c] the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because [e] I persecuted the church of God.
10 But [g] by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but [k] I laboured more abundantly than they all: [i] yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.
11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.
12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?
13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, [o] then [7] is Christ not risen:
14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and [β] your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because [a] we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, [8] if so be that [8] the dead rise not.
16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:
17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; [c] ye are yet in your sins.
18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.
19 [d] If [9] in this life only we have [10] hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.
20 But now [e] is Christ risen from the dead, [β] and become [β] [y] the firstfruits of them that slept.
21 For [i] since by man came death, [k] by man came also the resurrection of the dead.
22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
23 But [p] every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.
24 Then cometh the end, when he [β] shall have delivered up [s] the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.
25 For he must reign, [x] till he hath put all enemies under his feet.
26 [y] The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.
27 For he [z] hath put all things under his feet. But [11] when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.
28 [q] And when all things shall be [12] subdued unto him, then [γ] shall the Son also himself be [12] subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.
29 Else what shall they do which are baptized [13] for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?
30 And [k] why stand we in jeopardy every hour?
31 I protest by [14] ‖ [l] your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, [m] I die daily.
32 [15] If ‖ after the manner of men [n] I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what [β] advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? [p] let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

A UNIQUE TEACHER'S BIBLE.

The REV. F. N. PELOUBET in the Senior Sunday School Quarterly, 2d quarter, 1895, says: "Probably the most complete and perfect Bible for teachers and pastors in existence is the Variorum Teachers' Edition, published by Eyre and Spottiswoode. It not only has the helps usually found in Teachers' Bibles, revised and improved to the very latest date, but it has at the foot of each page the various Renderings and Readings, with the authorities, so that at a glance the teacher can know whether he is speaking by authority, can correct his impressions, and can receive no little light on the meaning of all difficult passages. It brings at a glance what could elsewhere be gained by long research or special books. It is beautifully printed, beautifully bound. It is a work of art as well as of learning."

THE BEST BIBLE FOR TEACHERS, PREACHERS, AND STUDENTS.

The Variorum Teacher's Bible

COMPLETE WITH REVISED AIDS AND MAPS,

One Hundred and Seventy-five Half-tone Illustrations Printed in Sepia.

(Including Coloured Frontispiece of "A ROYAL HITTITE").

The Illustrations (exceeding 170 Subjects), selected and described by the Rev. C. J. BALL, M.A.,

Chaplain to the Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn; Member of Council of the Society of Biblical Archæology; Editor of the Variorum Apocrypha, etc., etc.,

assisted by

F. G. KENYON, M.A.,

Of the Manuscript Department of the British Museum,

have been produced by the WOODBURY COMPANY (Eyre and Spottiswoode, proprietors), and cover the entire field of Biblical Archæology.

This New Edition of the Variorum Teacher's Bible is not merely a Reference Bible with the Teacher's Aids appended, but in addition, it contains on the same page as the Text, in footnotes, a complete digest of the Various Renderings and Readings of the original text from the very best Authorities.

The names of the distinguished Editors are sufficient to guarantee the Excellence of the Work.

OLD TESTAMENT.—REV. T. K. CHEYNE, M.A., D.D., Professor of Interpretation, Oxford; REV. S. R. DRIVER, D.D., Professor of Hebrew, Oxford.

NEW TESTAMENT.—REV. R. L. CLARKE, M.A., Queen's College, Oxford; ALFRED GOODWIN, M.A., Balliol College, Oxford, and University College, London; REV. W. SANDAY, M.A., D.D., LL.D., Professor of Exegesis, Oxford.

The Variorum Notes collated from such sources, together with the "New Aids to Bible Students," give to the Student of Scripture an amount of information which could only be obtained by the possession of a very exhaustive and costly Library. Thus within the compass of a PORTABLE VOLUME is comprised the quintessence of Biblical Criticism and Scholarship in the most convenient form.

THE "VARIORUM" AIDS have been prepared with the utmost care in order that the Student may have at his disposal the BEST material from the pen of the most Eminent Authority on the various subjects treated, and the MOST RELIABLE and RECENT information.

SOME OF THE CONTRIBUTORS:

Ball,	Courtier,	Kenyon,	Maskelyne,	Stainer,	Wright,
Boscawen,	Green,	Leathes,	Sanday,	Swete,	Girdlestone.
Cheyne,	Hole,	Madden,	Sayce,	Tristram,

Why is the Variorum Teacher's Bible the Best?

Because it contains MORE VALUABLE INFORMATION as to Textual readings than all the other Teacher's Bibles put together.

Because ON THE SAME PAGE AS THE TEXT the Student has prepared for him the very best results of Biblical Criticism and Scholarship, and the Evidence for and against the Revised Version.

Because the Articles in the "Aids" are written by the ABLEST AND MOST EMINENT SCHOLARS.

Because THE INFORMATION IS CONDENSED and is the result of the most recent investigations, and is RELIABLE.

Because the Authorities are quoted in each case, except where a general agreement is acknowledged.

What are the Advantages of the Variorum Bible

Above every other Teacher's Bible?

1. It contains a collection of Notes vastly superior to any that can be found in any other volume.

2. The General Reader unacquainted with the Hebrew and Greek languages, is enabled to arrive at a truer, fuller and deeper meaning of the text than he could obtain from any other work. He has before him alternate versions of many difficult passages, often rendering further note or comment needless.

3. The Sunday-School Teacher will find the use of the Variorum footnotes of the utmost value in the preparation of lessons. Explanatory notes of difficult or abstruse passages are at hand, and the aids contain most reliable and exhaustive information upon every conceivable topic.

4. The Preacher will find every passage in the text marked where the translation is considered defective by scholars; and in the footnotes he will find the evidence for and against alterations or variations from the best versions and editions, including the Revised Version and its marginal readings. It will save him much fruitless searching in his library by discriminating for him the sources from which the different readings are taken, and the authorities that support them. Where all scholars are agreed in a rendering, the names of authorities are omitted.

5. The Bible Student will find a more careful selection of critical data and authorities than is elsewhere accessible. He will have at hand a reference to the opinions of the critical editors as to the readings of the text, in fact the very essence of textual criticism, gathered from the most reliable sources, ancient and modern.

Rev. Dr. Parker says that it is quite as valuable for preachers and hearers as for teachers and scholars. It is a library in itself, containing everything that is immediately needed for the elucidation of the sacred text.

ST. LUKE, IV.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The temptation and fasting of Christ. 13 He overcometh the devil: 14 beginneth to preach. 16 The people of Nazareth admire his gracious words. 33 He cureth one possessed of a devil, 38 Peter's mother in law, 40 and divers other sick persons. 41 The devils acknowledge Christ, and are reproved for it. 43 He preacheth through the cities.

AND Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,
2 Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.
3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.
4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.
5 And the devil, taking him up into a high mountain, showed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.
6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.
7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.
8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.
9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:
10 For it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:
11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Paul's defence THE ACTS, 26. before Agrippa.

CHAPTER 26.

1 Paul, in the presence of Agrippa, declareth his life from his childhood, 12 and how miraculously he was converted, and called to his apostleship. 24 Festus chargeth him to be mad, whereunto he answereth modestly. 28 Agrippa is almost persuaded to be a Christian. 31 The whole company pronounce him innocent.

THEN Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for himself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself: I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews: especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently. My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers: unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews. Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead? I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted

Christ talketh with ST. JOHN, a woman of Samaria.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Christ talketh with a woman of Samaria, and revealeth himself unto her. 27 His disciples marvel. 31 He declareth to them his zeal to God's glory. 39 Many Samaritans believe on him. 43 He departeth into Galilee, and healeth the ruler's son that lay sick at Capernaum.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have

ST. JOHN, VII.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Jesus reproveth the ambition and boldness of his kinsmen: 10 goeth up from Galilee to the feast of tabernacles: 14 teacheth in the temple. 40 Divers opinions of him among the people. 45 The Pharisees are angry that their officers took him not, and chide with Nicodemus for taking his part.

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him.

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some

THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER
IN THE FRENCH LANGUAGE,

Translated and edited by the REV. A. V. WITTMEYER, Rector of the Church du St. Esprit, New York.

Issued under the authorization of The Bishop of New York, and with the certificate of the Custodian of the Standard Book of Common Prayer. The text of this edition follows that of a former French Prayer Book, edited by the Rev. A. Verren, D.D., including the necessary corrections and enrichments to secure conformity with the present Standard.

In the preparation of this new edition especial care has been exercised to secure reasonable perfection. Its claims are:

Fidelity to the Text of the Present American Prayer Book! Careful Translation into Idiomatic French! Acceptable and Pleasing Typographical Dress! Convenient Size! Moderate Price!

It commends itself not only to Parishes holding Services in the French Language, but also to such Church Schools, Seminaries and Colleges as include the study of French in their curriculum.

Size, 6 by 4 inches.

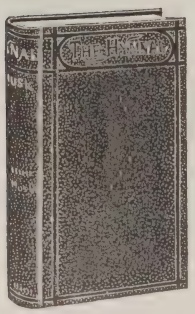
DR. MESSITER'S MUSICAL HYMNAL.



7400

The Hymnal

REVISED AND ENLARGED

AS ADOPTED BY THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF 1892

WITH MUSIC

As used in Trinity Church, New York

EDITED BY

A. H. MESSITER, MUS. DOC.

ORGANIST OF TRINITY CHURCH, NEW YORK

The music of this Hymnal takes its tone from the music of Trinity Church, so favorably known for its devotional and dignified character. For over a quarter of a century the musical successes of "Old Trinity" under the leadership of its accomplished organist have been famed far and wide. Dr. Messiter's musical career is a guarantee for the work so conscientiously and thoroughly done in the compilation of the "Trinity" Hymnal.

"Dr. Messiter has displayed excellent judgment in his selection and harmonization of tunes. Especially are we glad to note that he has refrained from changing the standard harmonies of well-known tunes."—N. Y. Tribune.

"Dr. Messiter may be congratulated upon having produced a book worthy of the church."—The Call, Newark, N. J.

"One dominant and capital feature of the book is the congregational character of the music, which is not over-elaborate or of extreme compass."—Living Church.

"The general character of the music is distinctly congregational."—The Church Standard.

"There is hardly a weak or vapid tune in the book—scarce a page that will not stand the wear of years. The collection is dignified, solid, sedate, devotional."—The Churchman.

"'Messiter' is the production of a man who knows how to edit a musical Hymnal. It is a scholarly and accurately edited work. From the standpoint of the ecclesiastical musician it is facile princeps. . . . 'Messiter' is the book that will be commended by those whose judgment is accompanied by knowledge and taste."—Southern Churchman.

pass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord, open thou our lips.
Answer. And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

¶ Here, all standing up, the Minister shall say,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
Answer. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
Minister. Praise ye the Lord.
Answer. The Lord's Name be praised.

¶ Then shall follow a Portion of the PSALMS, as they are appointed, or one of the Selections, as they are set forth by this Church. And at the end of every Psalm, and likewise at the end of the Magnificat, Cantate Domino, Bonum est confiteri, Nunc dimittis, Deus misereatur, Benedic anima mea, may be sung or said the Gloria Patri: and at the end of the whole Portion or Selection of Psalms for the day, shall be sung or said the Gloria Patri, or else the Gloria in excelsis, as followeth.

Gloria in excelsis.

GLORY be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

¶ Then shall be read the FIRST LESSON, according to the Table or Calendar.

¶ After which shall be sung or said the Hymn called Magnificat, as followeth.

Magnificat. St. Luke i. 46.

MY soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his handmaiden.

4 Once again those storms are breaking;
Hearts are failing, love grows cold;
Faith is darkened, sin abounding:
Grievous wolves assail Thy fold:
Save us, Lord, our one Salvation;
Save the faith revealed of old.

5 Call the erring by Thy pity;
Warn the tempted by Thy fear;
Keep us true to Thine allegiance,
Counting life itself less dear;
Standing firmer, holding faster,
As we see the end draw near:

6 Till, with holy Jude and Simon
And the thousand faithful more,
We, the good confession witnessed
And the lifelong conflict o'er,
On the sea of fire and crystal
Stand, and wonder, and adore.

General for Saints' Days.

174 7.6.

FROM all Thy saints in warfare, for all Thy saints at rest,
To Thee, O blessèd Jesus, all praises be addressed.
Thou, Lord, didst win the battle that they might conquerors be;
Their crowns of living glory are lit with rays from Thee.

Insert here the stanza for the special Saint's Day to be celebrated.

ST. ANDREW.

2 Praise, Lord, for Thine apostle, the first to welcome Thee,
The first to lead his brother, the very Christ to see.
With hearts for Thee made ready, watch we throughout the year,
Forward to lead our brethren to own Thine Advent near.

ST. THOMAS.

3 All praise for Thine apostle, whose short-lived doubtings prove
Thy perfect twofold nature, the fullness of Thy love.
On all who wait Thy coming shed forth Thy peace, O Lord,
And grant us faith to know Thee, true Man, true God, adored.

A Manual for the Study of Insects.

SECOND EDITION.

By JOHN HENRY COMSTOCK, Professor of Entomology in Cornell University and in Leland Stanford Junior University, and ANNA BOTSFORD COMSTOCK, Member of the Society of American Wood-Engravers.

This handbook is designed to meet the needs of teachers in the public schools and of students in high schools and colleges. The book is so written that any intelligent teacher can find out for himself the more important facts of insect-life. Its most distinctive feature is a series of analytical tables by means of which the family to which any North American insect belongs can be determined. Under the head of each family the characteristics of the family, both as regards structure and habits, are given, and the more common species are described. It is thus possible for the student to determine to what family any insect belongs, and to learn the habits of the insects of that family, and, in case of the more common species, to learn the name of the insect.

The book consists of 711 pages, and is illustrated by 797 figures in the text and six full-page plates, one of which is colored. Nearly all of the figures have been engraved especially for this work.

Price, $3.75; or by mail, postpaid, $4.09.

The Microscope and Microscopical Methods.

SIXTH EDITION.

By SIMON HENRY GAGE, Professor of Microscopy, Histology, and Embryology in Cornell University and the New York State Veterinary College, Ithaca, N. Y U. S. A.

The figures have been increased from 103 to 165. In matter this edition has grown from 165 to 237 pages. This increase is due to additions in the text of previous editions and to some wholly new matter upon methods of isolation and of sectioning by the collodion and by the paraffin methods, the preparation of drawings for publication and lecture-room diagrams.

Price, $1.50, postpaid.

From the American Monthly Microscopical Journal, Dec. 1891: "It is up to date, and the section devoted to homogeneous immersion objectives, the substage illuminator, the camera lucida, the micro-spectroscope and the micro-polariscope will be especially welcome to workers. . . . Altogether, it is one of those books that the student and worker in microscopy cannot afford to be without."

From Nature, Sept. 8, 1892: (Review by Rev. W. H. Dallinger, editor of the last edition of Carpenter. The Microscope and its Revelations.) "In short, this treatise lays the foundation for a thorough microscopical training, entirely adapted to the wants of medical students."

From the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal, Jan. 26, 1893: "We know of no other work so well calculated to give a beginner a clear and sufficient insight into the principles involved in microscopical observation and in the proper care of the instrument and specimens."

"A practical book for the use of schools. In a concise, connected manner it covers an immense field of work for a book of its size."—Chautauquan, Sept., 1890.

"It is evidently the work of a capable and successful instructor, and teachers of literature will undoubtedly find in it valuable material."—Literary World, Boston, 1890.

"'English Authors' is a combination study in history and literature. As a work for the class-room the book is excellent."—Public Opinion, Washington, D. C.

"A very valuable class-book."—American Hebrew.

AMERICAN AUTHORS.

700 pages, 72 illustrations, $1.80. (1894.)

"'American Authors' divides the literature of this country into five eras, and plainly classifies the writers and their writings, telling in a simple and charming way more than has yet been told in any text-book on this subject. The history, combined with the literature, renders the book invaluable to students. It should be in every school either as a Reader or as a text-book. Miss Rutherford is to be congratulated upon her work."—Literary Review.

BIBLE LESSONS.

Historical Questions, with Bible References to Old Testament. 72 pages, 25 cents.

"The plan is excellent, and should greatly increase the Bible knowledge of the pupils. It is not at all doctrinal, but altogether historical, and was prepared for a Monday morning school exercise, and necessitates Bible research and study. As an aid to the study of the Bible, we like it."—S. Boykin, Kind Words.
